Is a door an exit or an entrance? Is it a means of ending or beginning? These are paradoxical questions — seemingly full of contradiction.

The Roman god of gates and doors, Janus, is also a paradox. And it is this multi-faced god who symbolizes the theme of the 1962 Celtic.

Interested in the profusion of paradoxes that are present in all our lives, and sometimes surprised at how unnoticed they are, the Celtic staff has chosen the visible and subtle paradoxes of Entrances and Exits as its theme.

SCHOOL BOARD

Seven individuals, from many different aspects of community life, represent the district as the school board.

Meeting almost weekly, the members handle administration, hire faculty, and discuss budget problems.

Headed by Dr. W. K. Niece, Chairman, and assisted by Mr. Vernon Gibbs, Clerk, these working leaders of the district are responsible for all policies of the thirteen grade schools and the high school that make up the David Douglas District, R-40.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

The David Douglas High School should play a realistic role in the over-all educational program of our district. Your school is not only responsible for secondary education, but must assume a leadership role that will serve as an inspiration for all boys and girls in our elementary schools.

How you act as students at school functions, how you conduct yourself in community affairs, is most important. Ever remember that wherever you go and whatever you do, you are contributing to the role that David Douglas High School must play.

Floyd Light

L. to R.: Mr. Vernon L. Gibbs, Clerk; Mr. Floyd Light, Superintendent; Mr. Walter S. Dillon, Assistant Superintendent; and Mr. Worley M. Havely, Assistant Superintendent.

SUPERINTENDENT

Backed by the school board, a staff of carefully selected community businessmen, Mr. Floyd Light serves as Superintendent of the consolidated David Douglas School District. He has played an indispensable part in the building and developing of the district since its beginning nine years ago.

Mr. Walter S. Dillon, Assistant Superintendent; and Mrs. Marleen Pickens, Testing Co-ordinator.

Mrs. Kay Stout, Central Office receptionist.

Mr. Bill Chinchen, Supervisor of Maintenance.

Academics and Administration

Ultimately, education serves all of our purposes — liberty, justice and all our other aims — but the one it serves most directly is equality of opportunity. We promise such equality, and education is the instrument by which we hope to make good the promise. It is the high road of individual opportunity, the great avenue that all may travel.

From the report of the President's Commission on National Goals—1960

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The administration of David Douglas High School presents a tremendously challenging and satisfying situation. Seldom does one find as competent a teaching staff, together with a fine student body and community support as is evidenced here at David Douglas. The growth of this school can be traced not only in number of students but in academic achievement and a successful activities program. It is a real pleasure to be a part of this school and community.

Howard L. Horner

HOWARD F. HORNER

PRINCIPAL

Growth, expansion, and change have become anticipated experiences to those who are David Douglas High School — students, faculty, and community.

Mr. Howard F. Horner, principal, comes first to mind when thinking of outstanding individuals who have contributed their time and efforts to insure our development. Mr. Horner is a man who decides and does. He is a man with an outstanding sense of humor, coupled with a business-like manner and an ability to get things done. These qualities make him respected by everyone.

Since 1954, the year David Douglas came to be, Mr. Horner has served the district as principal. Within these years he has attained a high degree of success in the community as well as in professional areas.

A graduate of Pacific University, Mr. Horner also holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Oregon. He is Chairman of the National Council of National Honor Society and the Junior National Honor Society. He is also the president-elect of the Oregon Association of Secondary School Principals, and an active member of the Multnomah County Schoolmasters.

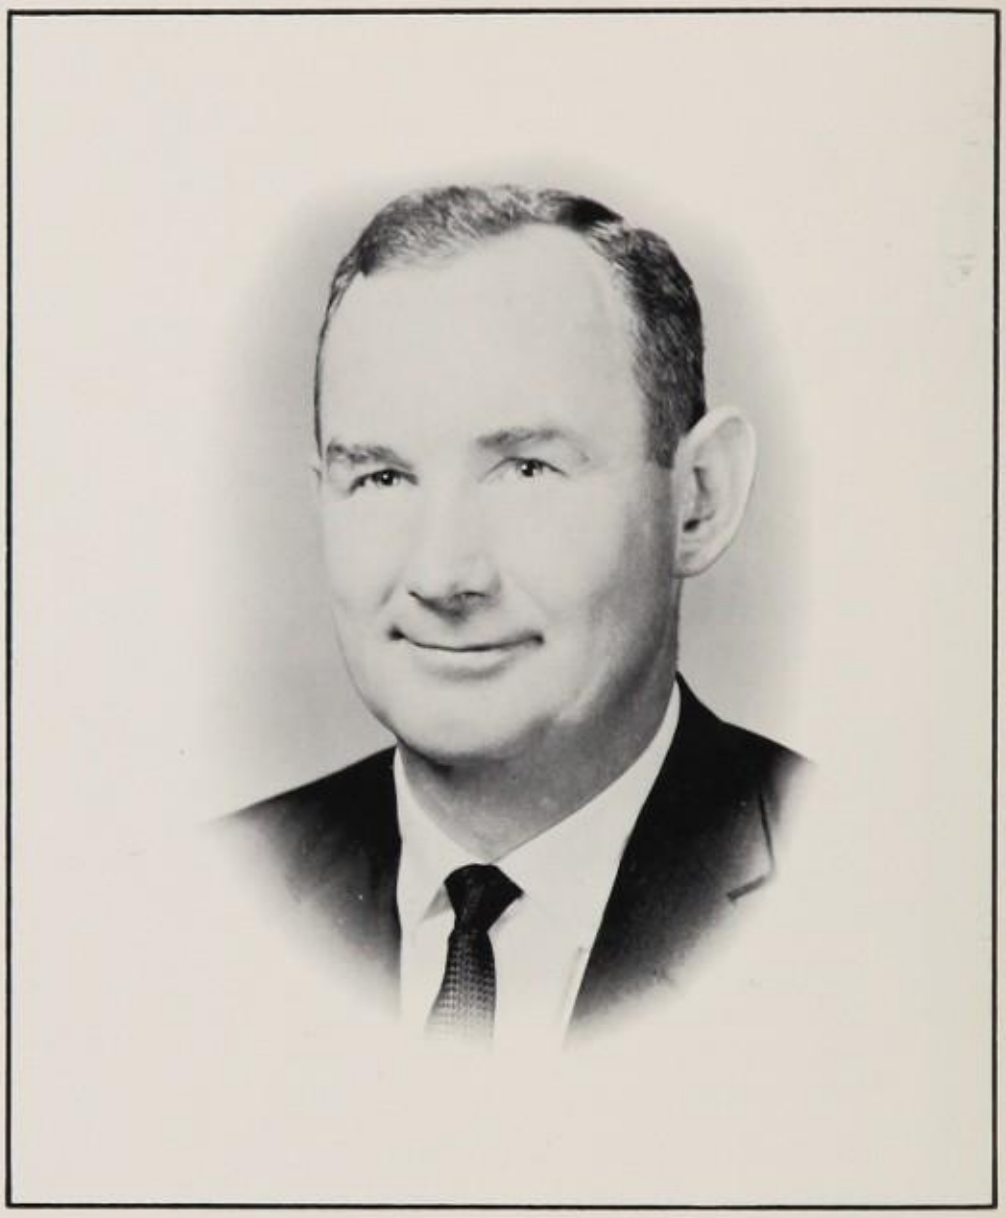
SENIOR BUILDING VICE- PRINCIPALS

MRS. MILDRED WIRTZ
B.A., University of Oregon
M.A., Syracuse University

It is a joy to work with Douglas girls, to watch them develop into charming, poised young women. Our girls are leaders in scholarship and in school spirit, in art, music and speech, and in beauty and friendliness.

We on the staff try to contribute to this growth process by wise guidance.

Mildred M. Wirtz



MR. CHARLES L. HOSFORD
B.S., M.Ed., Lewis & Clark College

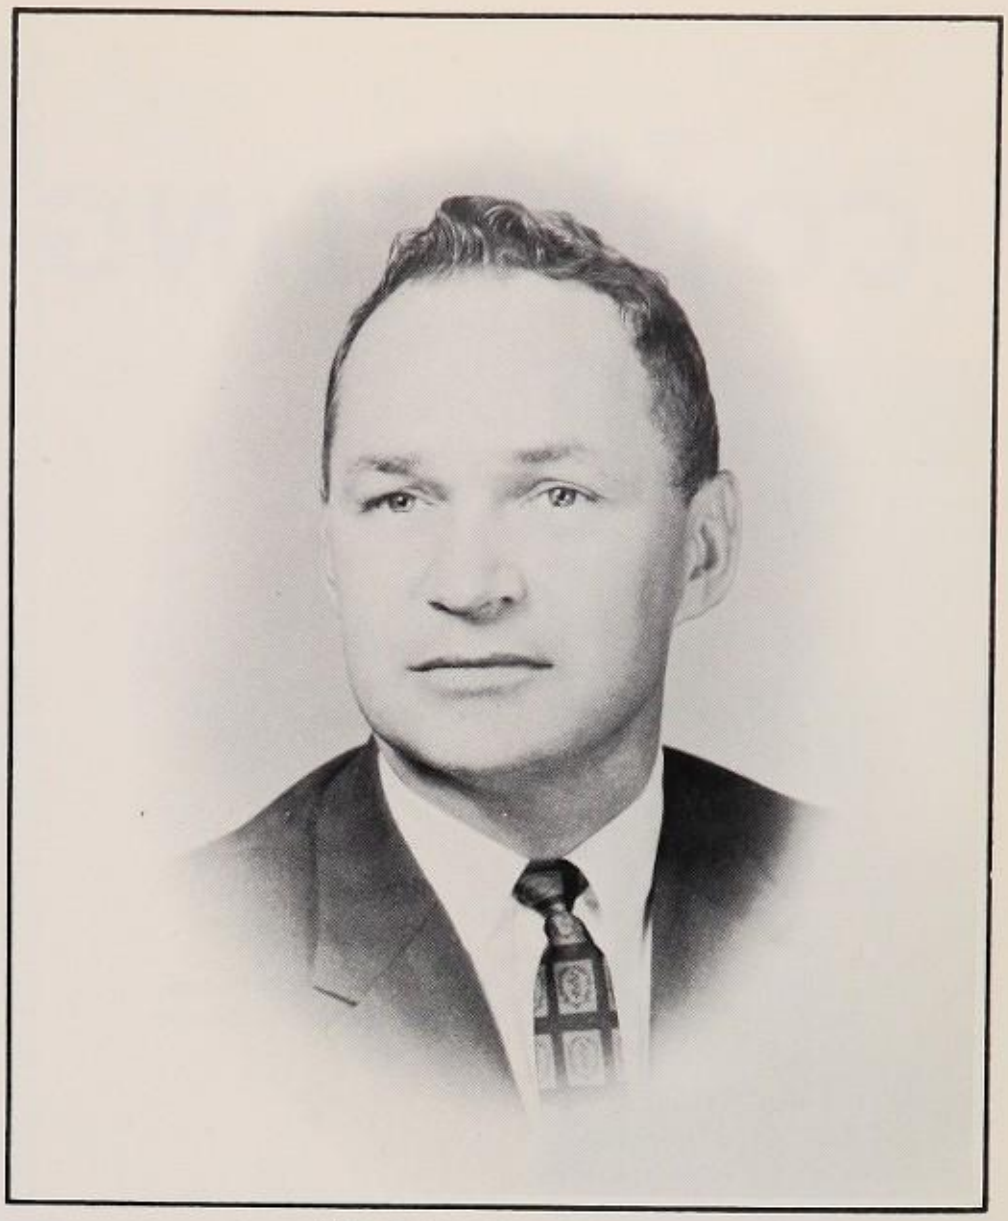
A significant phase of the growth of our school has taken place in the many opportunities and challenges offered to all students. An enriched curriculum, extended co-curricular activities, and a balanced athletic program are continuously being revised to meet the ever-changing needs of the youth of our community.

Charles L. Hosford

JUNIOR BUILDING ADMINISTRATION

Increasing enrollment demands have necessitated the construction of the junior building. It has been my privilege to work with and observe the student behavior in both buildings. Evidence of outstanding accomplishments and exemplary performance by our students have enabled the Scots to attain a high standing in the Oregon secondary school program.

Robert E. Daggett



MR. ROBERT DAGGETT

VICE PRINCIPALS

Vice Principals are "trouble-shooters" — administrators ready to help, console, advise, and redirect students in all kinds of personal and school matters.

One is principal of the junior building. The second has special responsibility for student groups and their government. The third handles college counseling and applications.

All vice principals work with individual students, parents and faculty, striving for good relationships and mutual understanding.

DEANS

The deans, counselors and advisors of the junior building, are always ready with advice and are willing to assist.

Striving for educational improvement, they arrange schedules, encourage good conduct, promote interest in scholastic achievement, administer group tests, and if necessary, attend to disciplinary problems which may arise.

COUNSELING

What can I do now? Where do I go from here?

These questions are two of those most frequently asked of the counselors, and though they do require answers the counselors do not have ready-made solutions. Each student is an individual needing a particular answer suiting his needs and abilities.

Providing a means for students and counselors to deliberate together and exchange opinions, the counseling department performs the four services of guidance: educational and vocational guidance, personal counseling, testing, and following-up the progress of students through school and beyond.

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder." This speculation provides an opportunity for artistic hands and creative minds to develop their talents and to express themselves.

Headed by Mr. D. W. Pearson, the art department supplies advertising art for various school functions through the advertising staff. In addition to supplying advertising art, the art department provides additional means of expression through the media of ceramics, metal, leather, paint, charcoal, and mosaics.

"Cat, dog, change, see!" Though it sounds elementary, learning shorthand is far from simple. Students who have successfully completed their business subjects may go directly from high school to a job, or if they wish, on to further study in college or business college.

Included in the vocational course offerings are two years each of typing and shorthand and one year each of bookkeeping and office practice.

For those students who plan to go on to college and who do not elect to do office work, a year each of the combinations of briefhand - personal typing and record keeping - business law are offered.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Astronauts, nuclear tests, and a dire need for better understanding between nations, have all contributed their part to place a nationwide emphasis on foreign language programs.

Six hundred and twenty-three students take part in Spanish, French, German, Latin, and Russian classes offered as part of these programs by the David Douglas language department.

A new language laboratory with 25 listening stations and 5 recording booths has been installed this year. The laboratory provides practical experience in speaking.

Too many cooks often spoil the soup it's true, but in the homemaking department they learn not to.

A four year program for freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior girls, plus a senior home management course include the study of family relations, child care, clothing, foods, home furnishings, and budgeting.

Various activities of the department are: a spring fashion show and tea for students and their mothers, guest meals, play school for "small" guests and a first year homemaking club.

The objective of all this?—The development of better family citizenship.

MATHEMATICS

A chore, a challenge, or a delight—math is many things to many people. In promoting an interest in scientific and mathematical fields the David Douglas math department has a two-fold goal. The first purpose is to provide a terminal mathematics program for those people not interested in a mathematics career. The second is to provide a program in college preparatory mathematics sound enough to equip the student for college work anywhere in the country.

Music is everyone's language, and in order to develop an appreciation of various kinds of music the David Douglas department of music makes use of beginning and advanced choirs, vocal and instrumental ensembles, orchestras, bands, and general music courses. All provide opportunities for any interested students.

Wherever there is music there is entertainment and the students of music provide it enthusiastically and well in such efforts as the Spring Concert, the Band and Orchestra festivals, dances, and athletic events.

Classes

Each class competes with the others, but through this competition greater unity is accomplished and a stronger school is the result.

The Mr. Thanksgiving Can Drive, March of Dimes Drive, and the World Clothing Week collection symbolize competition with a purpose. The double edge of this competition produces a clear-cut effect. First, the bonds of inter-class unity are strengthened by stress; second, the organizations to which the money, cans, and clothing are contributed derive great benefit.

Collective will and individual effort have given us a stronger school.

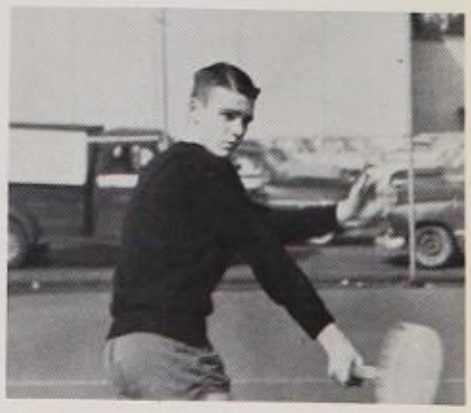
High scholastic standing is the obvious prerequisite for both Valedictorian and Salutatorian, but it must be coupled with some not-so-obvious traits.

The Valedictorian, who says goodbye to all that is past, and the Salutatorian, who welcomes the future, are well endowed with integrity, dependability, a willingness to work, an enthusiasm for learning and an avid interest in "things". Both are well liked, well rounded individuals with a plan for the future and a remembrance of the past.

Each is representative of his class, his school, and himself; and each will remain in the minds of the seniors, personifying a time.



SENIOR BANQUET

After dinner had been served by Taif, Mr. Schmid, the emcee for the annual Senior Banquet, introduced Mrs. Wirtz, and Mr. Boyd, president of the Dad's Club, who each had some presentations to make to the seniors. Mr. Horner then gave a talk which ended with the reading of his original poem dealing with the activities of the senior class in their four years at Douglas. The Rhythm-Masters ended an enjoyable evening with a delightful jazz presentation.

The annual Dad's Club award for athletic prowess was awarded to Dick Jabs.

Cool jazz was the order of the night at the Banquet. It was supplied plentifully by the Rhythm-Masters.

Mr. Horner and Mrs. Wirtz look amused, as did all the people at the quips of Mr. Schmid, the emcee at the Senior Banquet.

BACCALAUREATE

Reverend Schwabe gave the Baccalaureate sermon.

"Gung Ho, Class of 1962" was the inspirational conclusion of the baccalaureate sermon delivered by Reverend Arthur G. Schwabe. The sermon was directed to both the graduates and the attending friends. He emphasized the fact that the graduating class will soon be launched into a world in which a split second's hesitation would be disastrous. The Reverends Earl B. Horsell and T. D. Hughes also participated in the sermon.

Reverend Horsell read the Scripture at the baccalaureate service for the graduating class, their relatives and friends.

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

If a book were to be written about our class of 1962, it might well be entitled, We Followed a Giant. We followed a class that excelled highly in athletics, academics, and citizenship for which David Douglas can be truly proud.

This job of following has not been at all easy and many times it has been disheartening. I feel though that even if we haven't, as a whole, received any outstanding recognition; we have developed one very important attribute which has made us one of the most functional and truly industrious classes ever to attend this school. This attribute has been class unity.

We as seniors have, as an example of this unity, headed such events as Homecoming, the Senior Class Assembly, Senior Administration Day, May Fete, and Graduation week; which have attained more success than ever before. This was made possible because we did things together, we took advantage of everyone's talent instead of that of a few individuals.

Class unity is the mark of a good class. It shows a responsibility toward the school and the other members of the class. This is the kind of attitude which produces good leaders and capable citizens, people whom our country most needs today if it is to remain a free, prosperous, and responsible nation of the world.

The gym is empty now, but in a few short hours, it will be full of proud parents, relatives, and graduates.

Last minute preparations are made for graduation. Ribbons are made for chairs, and the stage is decorated.

LAST BLAST!

At the Senior Last Blast . . .

some slept . . .

some danced . . .

most ate . . .

some played pool . . .

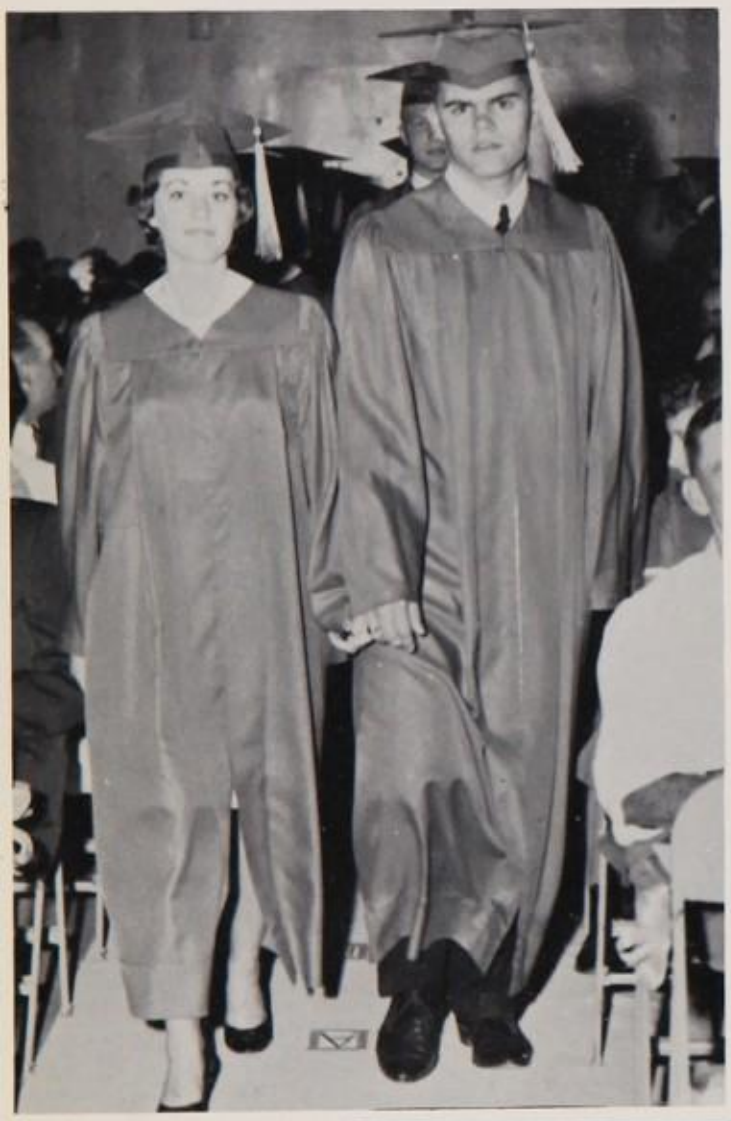
and some bowled . . .

Friendship 1962! This was the theme of the Senior Last Blast. From 11:59 Wednesday until 6:00 Thursday morning, a large group of sleepy but happy seniors participated in well-organized activities planned by the senior parents. They alternately ate, skated, ate, swam, ate, bowled, ate, and played numerous games set up in and around the cafetorium. After a breakfast served in the cafetorium by the parents, the exhausted parents and seniors returned to their homes to catch up on all the sleep they missed before and after graduation activities.

AND What is SO RARE as a day in June?

The culmination of four years of studious preparation . . . graduation. After a solemn procession to the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance", almost four hundred seniors were graduated on June 6. Pete Kistler, the foreign exchange student from Switzerland, spoke on the topic "Freedom versus Freedom." He said that the main responsibility of America's ideals of freedom and democracy would soon be the responsibility of the graduates. The other main speaker, Gerry Philipsen, challenged each senior to take a "New Approach" to his future, to help "punch holes in the darkness" of prejudice and biased opinions. Reverend Earl B. Horsell gave an inspiring invocation and benediction. After each senior had received his diploma from Dr. Niece, the chairman of the school board, the senior class sang the Alma Mater, accompanied by the band. "Coronation March" was played as the recessional, while the seniors marched out to receive congratulations at an informal reception held in the breezeway.

The five basic elements of the graduation of each senior are: The processional . . .



The waiting for your name to be called . . .

Then if Ever

The giving of the diploma . . .

Come Perfect Days

The turning of the tassle . . .

And the recessional.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Sometimes overlooked in the general rush of things, the youthful freshman class proves to be the driving power behind activities in the junior building. The annual Sadie Hawkins Day dance and the class assembly, which demonstrates talents of all kinds, are major indications of class enthusiasm and interest.

I find the great thing in this world is, not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving.

CLASS OF 1965

—Class of things to come. Gridiron heroes, scholarship winners, May Fete royalty, rally squads, and leaders of student government; they are all here, hidden in the ranks of the largest freshman class of David Douglas' history.

What are they waiting for? Maturity mainly, a maturity that will come with the passing of this year and the coming of others.

SENIORS PREPARE FOR FUTURE

Included in the counselors' plans for providing information about college and other vocational opportunities is a series of college visitations and vocational conferences.

Through a number of group lectures, representatives from private as well as state institutions help each senior decide which school best suits his individual needs.

Mr. Craven discusses George Fox with senior Pat White.

Diane Brain and Tom House ruled with a flair over the 1961 Freshie Frolic. Presented by the sophomore class, the Frolic has as its theme "Hawaiian Sunset," which influenced the entertainment. Ron Jones played the piano; a combo composed of John Northe, Steve Roper, Dick Petrasso, John Eaton, Art Murphy and George Kristich performed; and Cheri Modisett danced the hula.

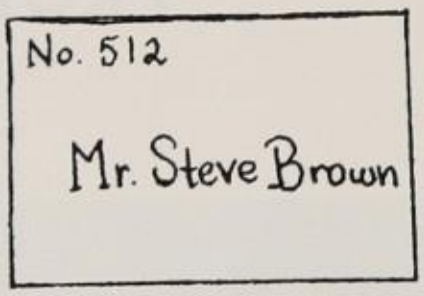
PARENTS RELIVE SCHOOL DAYS

Parents of David Douglas students found themselves amid the atmosphere of chalk dust and general confusion of the P.T.S.A. Back To School Night and, strangely enough, enjoyed it.

A mother tries to decipher directions.

Parents apprehensively enter biology class.



Name tags were useful in finding lost parents.

Teachers and parents were given a chance for casual conversation over refreshments.

Despite shipwreck, seniors typify Douglas spirit as dancing enthusiasm pervades the air.

SENIORS PROVE THAT SHIPWRECKS CAN BE FUN

Entertainment was continuous and often spontaneous throughout the evening of the first senior class party.

A variety of activities catered to assorted tastes and whims. A game called "Ha" made its debut on the Douglas scene, a water fight dampened festivities, a greased pig was chased and promptly caught, and of course dancing the Drag was as prevalent as ever.

Formal entertainment was provided by the Kingsmen.

Senior girls take advantage of a chance for relaxation after the sinking of the Titanic.

At the Homecoming soc hop, Douglas alumni prove that the drag is hard to forget.

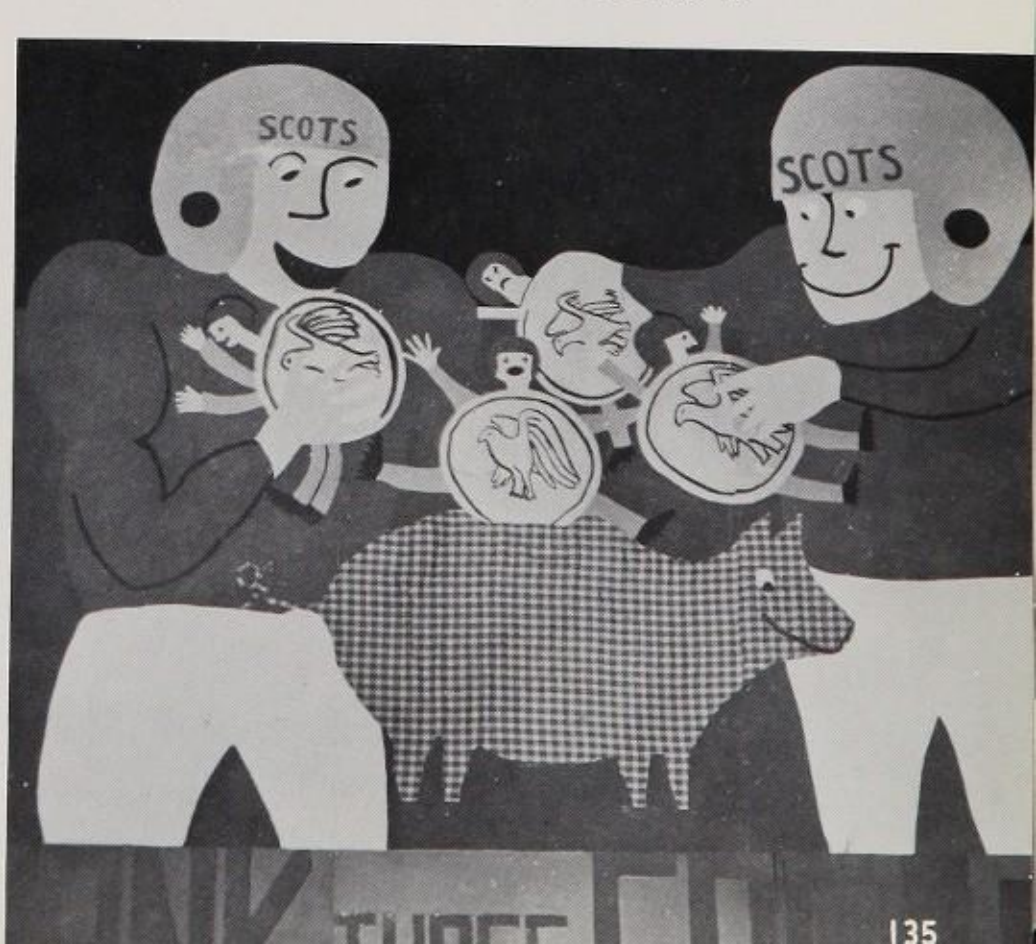
HOMECOMING WIN PLEASES ALUMNI

Royalty reigned supreme and anticipation rose, as the 1961 Homecoming began.

Donna Strand, Homecoming Queen, opened festivities with a welcome to all students and alumni. She also issued an invitation to all to attend the annual Homecoming soc hop.

The 13-0 score of the football game with Centennial succeeded in raising spirits to still greater heights.

During halftime the juniors won the sign contest and a talented array of band members, Twirlers, Pep club girls and Highland dancers provided entertainment.



Sophomore class sign, depicting Scots' spirit, is characteristic of class competition.

Engrossed Dogpatchers relax as the Kingsmen provide entertainment.

DOGPATCH DAYS COME ALIVE AT SADIE

Every gal and her captured date dressed in typical L'il Abner - Daisy Mae attire as Dogpatch days were relived at the Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored annually by the freshman class.

The Kingsmen, appropriately dressed, provided entertainment.

Costumes seem to amuse Mr. Hosford and Mr. Maney.

Best dressed individuals were Mary McCaleb and Bob McNett.

Best dressed couple award went to Sherri Roberts and Dan Radke.

Captain Fisby, played by Lynn Easton, expresses genuine enthusiasm when Mr. Oshira (Mac Heald) presents him with a cricket cage minus cricket. From Heald, Rande Wilmarth, Steve Byrd, Jack Hopkins, Lynn Easton.

A jeep and Lady Astor (the goat) lend naturalism to the scene as a group of players wend their way to Tobiki Village.

Captain Fisby explains to Lotsu Blossom (Liz Callahan) why he cannot take her to America with him.

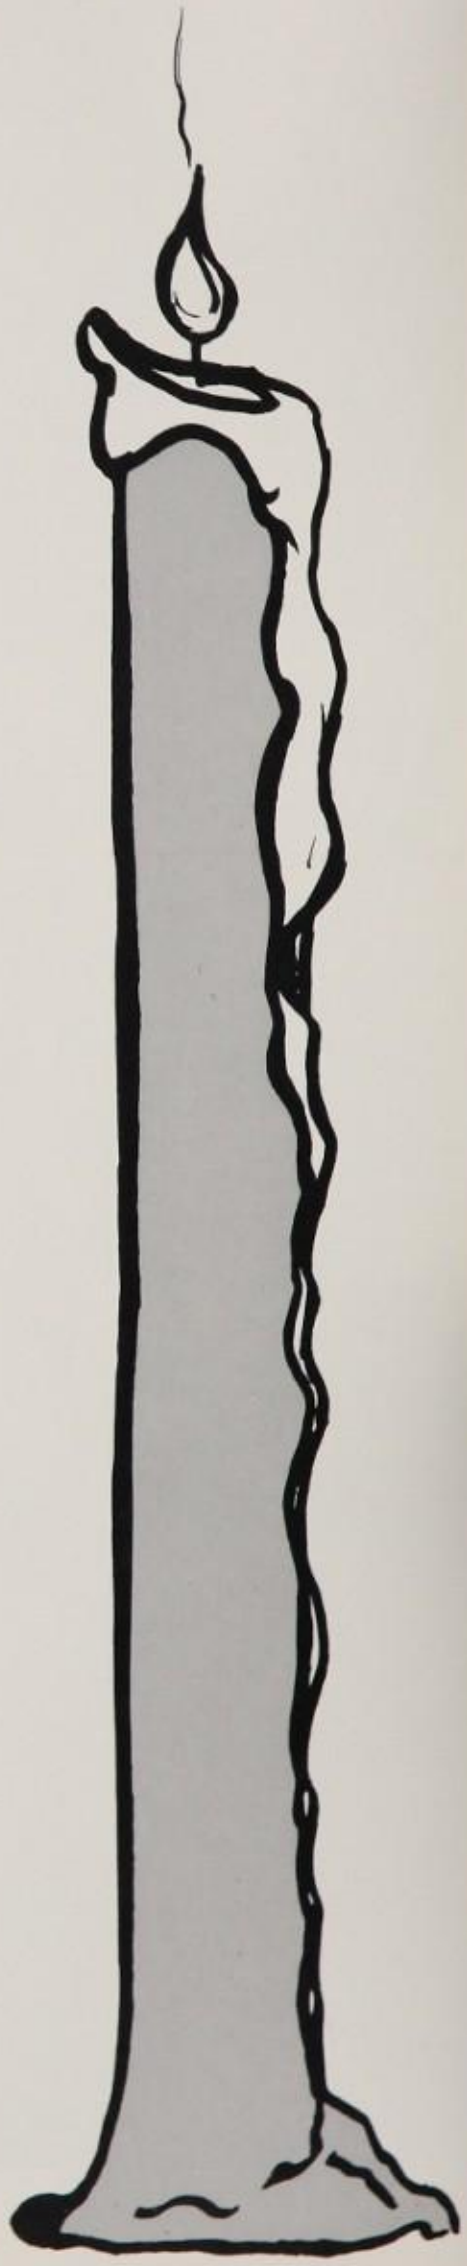
an old fashioned christmas



Couples relax between dances as refreshments are served by members of the Girls' League.

"An Old Fashioned Christmas" awoke in 1961 and found itself the theme of the Girls' League Winter Formal.

Providing a touch of the modern was Bill Becker and his band, who performed for the dance. Sam Elliott, accompanied by the Kingsmen, sang songs of the past and present: "White Christmas" and "A Wonder Like You."

Merwin Doud, as Santa, receives a holiday plea from Sue Wanless.

"Round yon Virgin, Mother and Child..." The Nativity is relived by the choir.

Mr. Saracco and the orchestra provided a musical interlude during the holiday season.

WINTER CONCERTS

Sleighbells rang and snow fell in the mind's eyes of all those who attended the annual Winter Vocal and Instrumental Concerts.

The Vagabonds, choir and band, contributed their talents to express musically the spirit of the winter season.

A "White Christmas" in song and scenery was presented by the Vagabonds at the annual winter concert.

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus!" Despite the fact that Mr. Maney, Mr. Hosford and Mr. Miller try to prove to the contrary.

"I bet you didn't recognize me all dressed up!" Irving (alias Dave Schwabe) amuses a receptive audience during the assembly.

HOLIDAY SPIRIT IS ABUNDANT AT ASSEMBLY

A variety of Christmas moods were presented to an expectant audience filled with holiday spirit at the annual Christmas Assembly.

To set a traditionally solemn mood, the choir sang and provided background music for "Raphael the Herald Angel," read by Karen Bacewich.

Traditional, too, was the merrymaking mood of the Christmas season. David Schwabe contributed to this with his "Irving" skit.

The faculty added their part to the festivities with a Santa Claus skit featuring Mr. Hosford, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Maney. In jest they gave gifts to deserving members of the student body. The religious spirit of the Christmas season was enhanced by the choir and a solo by Virginia Correia.

. . . OUR HIGHEST DREAM, THE

International relations, a most important part of our lives today, took on a new and fascinating personal look at David Douglas this year.

Two exchange students, Peter Kistler from Aaraw Aargau, Switzerland, and Ines Varela from Madrid, Spain, made their appearances at Douglas at different times of the year but both added much to the lives of those they came in contact with.

Pete, a perfect example of the American image of the Swiss, taught ski lessons at Mt. Hood and addressed student and adult groups.

Ines, who came to Douglas at the beginning of the second semester, was a member of Taif social service club and the Spanish club. She was delicately petite and typically Spanish.

Both have been an undeniable asset to Douglas; personable and anxious to learn, they have made a definite impression on students and faculty alike.

To further the improvement of international relations abroad as well as at home, the Douglas I.R.L. sponsored Moon Kyoo Kook, a child from Seoul, Korea. The "adoption" of the little boy provides for his food and clothing.

The complicated formulas of higher math intrigue Pete and Mr. Paul Tschache.

BROTHERHOOD OF MAN

Three thousand miles of border line—nor fort nor armed host
On all this frontier neighbor-ground, from east to western coast;
A spectacle to conjure with!—a thought to stir the blood!
A living proof to all the world of faith in brotherhood.

God speed that surely dawning day—the coming hour divine—
When all the nations of the earth shall boast such border line.

March of Dimes game action tired not only the players, but also the ball.

Outgoing Queen Jennifer Hill crowns freshman Allison Walters as princesses Dorothy Schutt, senior; Lorrie Robinson, junior; and Marilyn Henderson, sophomore, look on.

STUDENTS RALLY TO DONATE $778.59

Four quarters of the most spectacular and brilliantly executed basketball served as a charity attraction for the New March of Dimes.

Faculty members, supported by fans, rally, and a small but noisy band, confronted students and alumni with a "solid wall of defense" and a "battering ram offense." Students won 33-31.

Allison Walters, crowned Miss March of Dimes, led the freshmen to victory in the inter-class competition with their contribution of $148.

Contributions totalling $778.59 were collected from the classes, game receipts and other donations.

The case is on! Referee, Miss Pat Perkins, doesn't seem to realize that Mr. Carl Perkins should have the ball!

The spirit of the faculty rally epitomizes the nigh spirits of all who attended the game.

TO MARCH OF DIMES CAUSE

Confusion reigned supreme after Miss Pat Perkins and Miss Dorothy Gamblin exchanged places with original referees, Mr. Albert Ross and Mr. Max Wilkins.

Adorned with hearts and cupids, the cafetorium was the perfect scene for a "Date with Cupid." To add to the effect, Sam Elliott sang "Young Love" and "Lonesome Town."

Queen Penny Campbell, elected by the student body, ruled over the evening's festivities.

At first glance, Tom and Carol appeared to be an average teen-age couple out for an average night of dancing. But wasn't every couple at the Sweetheart's Ball a "little" special? Long will be remembered the first glimpse of her in a new formal, the beautiful corsage that wilted too soon, the wonderful but short evening of dancing and the reluctant "Good night."

Both royalty and commoners enjoy a "Date with Cupid."

Delight beamed from every face as the teachers presented their annual skit. This year, "Cape Carnival," provided the theme for a riotous evening.

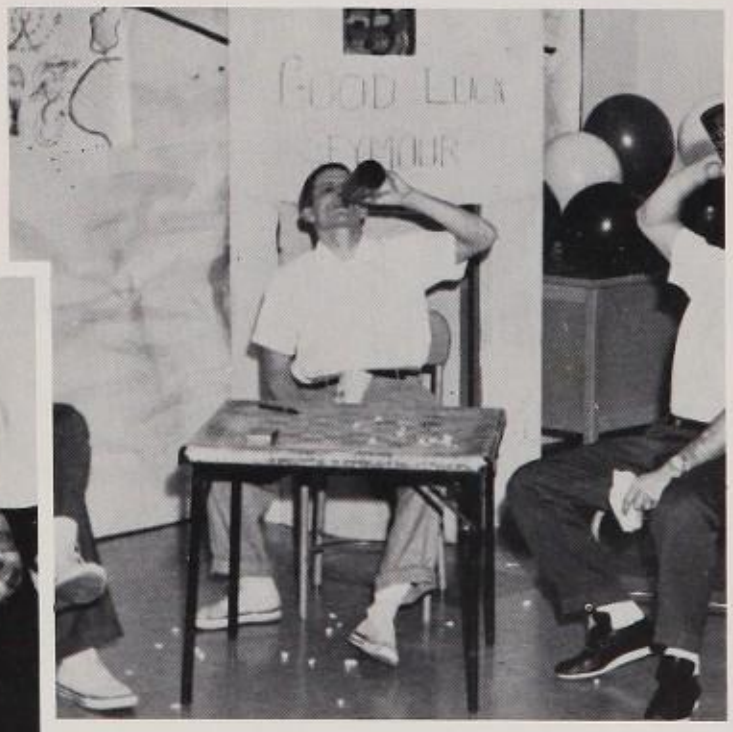
"CENTURY 21"

Century 21 at David Douglas was an event not soon forgotten by participants and onlookers alike. The 1962 Carnicapers, the only money-raising effort of the P.T.S.A., was highlighted by the annual teachers' skit. Providing an inside peek at Cape Carnival in action, the skit further gave an opportunity for teachers to unleash their various talents.

Games, prizes, contests, and dancing were all inseparable parts of Carnicapers.

The "twist" not only dominates the thoughts of teenagers, but also infringes on the sanity of two, once-dignified teachers, Miss Dorothy Gamblin and Mr. Aubrey Gardner.



Leading the student body in an inspirational service at the annual Easter Assembly Reverend Poindexter made his talk both interesting and stimulating. The traditional Easter Cross was decorated by Qualha, who sponsored the invocation. Sunrise Services were also led by Reverend Poindexter.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Blodgett, sang for the Easter Sunrise Service.

SPIRIT OF EASTER EPITOMIZED IN EASTER SERVICE

"The Holy City," sung by Virginia Correia, and three other traditional Easter hymns made the Easter Assembly a truly solemn service.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATION DAY

Senior Administration Day, a day of student responsibility and leadership, is an annual event at David Douglas with a specific purpose. Each participating senior, with the burden of faculty or administration problems upon him, learns quickly to appreciate the efforts of teaching. He realizes also the time and preparation necessary for adequate instruction.

TEACHERS AT THEIR REST?

One of the most unusual and pleasing aspects of the David Douglas faculty personality is its spiritual and chronological youthfulness.

Gone are the schoolmarm conceptions of years past; in their place is a certain progression of ideas and ideals that must exist in any growing institution.

The compatibility of students and teachers is promoted to an unlimited extent by this feeling of awareness of young people, their problems, and their triumphs.

Pictured here are the relaxation of tensions accumulated throughout the day, and the presentation of special brands of faculty humor.

... Death

A terrified and worried Duke Lambert receives no comfort from a concerned but unknowing wife, Stephanie.

In Grazia, Death finally finds the love that he has been looking for.

"DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY"

Throughout time philosophers and all men have been searching for the purposes of life, love and death. DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY assumes the task of dealing with all three.

Death himself, curious that men are reluctant to go with him, becomes human for three days in an effort to discover why men cling to life.

He has several questions in mind when he first comes to earth. First, he wants to find out why men don't want to die.

His second question is how does one know when he has found love.

Lastly, he wants to find a love which casts off fears, for he himself is reluctant to cast off the sensations of life.

A popular and unique institution at David Douglas is SNACK PERIOD, a too short 15 minutes, crammed with phone calls, gossip, the drag, soggy cookies, spray net, smiles, date plans, frowns, broken diets, and furious last minute cramming. SNACK is more than this, however.

It is a light spot in the day, something for teachers and students to look forward to and to enjoy.

SNACK is part of life at Douglas.

SPRING AWARDS ASSEMBLY PROVES TO BE THE LONGEST IN DOUGLAS' HISTORY

Spring awards, presented at an assembly, acknowledged the efforts and accomplishments of athletic groups and the industrial arts department.

The third annual North West Willamette Industrial Arts Exhibit gave notice to prominence in drafting, metal and wood-working, printing and electronics. Thirty five percent of all ribbons awarded were won by David Douglas students.

Outstanding participants in baseball and track were awarded letters and certificates for leadership as well as for athletic ability.

The Spring Award Assembly which was the longest in the history of David Douglas, presented the student body with numerous trophies and awards.

Judy Gilman received Honorable Mention in National Scholastic Magazine competition for her one-act play.

BANQUETS

Of all the traditional events of the year, banquets are the most numerous. The Father-Son and Father-Daughter banquets, with special guests, a fashion show by Rhodes, and entertainment, both played a special part in furthering good student and parent relationships.

National Honor Society's annual banquet recognized new and old society members.

Before Christmas, Girls' League sponsored the annual Winter Formal, "Deck the Halls". Fall president Liz Callahan handed the gavel to Donna Treadwell at the Spring Installation Assembly. Spring also brought the annual Mother-Daughter Tea with a style show sponsored and presented by Girls' League and the homemaking department. GUESTS

"The things you will one day be doing for a living have not yet been invented." This prophesy was left with the student body by Dr. Francis Nickerson, whose lecture on employment and colleges proved to be one of the many highlights of a guest-filled year.

Based on the conclusion that cultural education can best be served with the help of the public's participation, the school administration and the student body also invited, among others, the University of Oregon Singers; Mr. Dick Hanson, the nationally famous pianist and humorist; and Mr. Nephi Comhs, "The Bird Man."

Admittedly one of the most delightful assemblies of the year was presented by the talented Mr. Dick Hanson and his dog, Carma.

This smiling lass provided just a portion of the abundant talent brought to the student body in an exchange assembly with Sunset high school.

This duet from the University of Oregon Singers captured the hearts of The Douglas Scots with their arrangement of "Where Have All The Flowers Gone."

SENIORS ARE HONORED AMID THE SPLENDORS OF ARABIA

Once upon a time there lived an Arabian ruler, the Sultan Schahriar, who took a new bride every day. Each night he sent her to her death because none pleased him. Then, into his life came Scheherazade, a princess who told tales of such infinite wonder and delight that he kept her with him always and grew to love her dearly.

Recapturing this world of make-believe and exotic Eastern atmosphere, the annual Junior-Senior Prom "Scheherazade," with its colorful silken tents and interesting lighting, transformed the cafetorium into an Arabian fairyland.

Refreshments and entertainment, all provided by the junior class in honor of the Class of '62, rounded out a singular evening of complete enchantment.

Sports

Any successful sports program must, of necessity, include recognition of supporting team members as well as the "heroes" of gridiron, hardcourt, and diamond. David Douglas is no exception.

Coordinating the workings of trained minds and bodies, organized sports plays an inseparable part in the high school system.

Social ease, physical coordination and genuine sportsmanship are recognized as being inherent to the total athletic program.

HOW IMPRESSIVE

Was the tremendous spirit displayed by the student body of David Douglas;
was the fine sportsmanship shown by the players who helped to make the students more proud of Douglas.

WERE THE VICTORIES,

Ringing loudly throughout the year, the Victory Bell tolled for the many triumphs for which Scotsmen fought so hard.

HOW HUMBLING THE DEFEATS,

Realizing that each loss was the team's gain, the Douglas players utilized their past mistakes to gain future victories.

HOW BENEFICIAL THE WHOLESOME COMPETITION

Douglas' achievement of state-wide recognition is due to the true sportsmanship displayed by each team.

This TD pass of Sunset failed, like many others, as Scots successfully downed the Apollos.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC

The opening game of the season found Douglas coming out on top, 12-7, against Central Catholic. The Scots, behind at half time, 7-6, came back to score a final touchdown in the third quarter with Rich Petrasso going over from the two yard line. Douglas got 14 first downs to only 7 for the Rams.

BEAVERTON

A highly spirited Beaverton team, fighting with fierce determination, completely swamped the defending state champs. The Scots ground out 7 first downs, but a total of only 90 yards. The final score of the game seemed almost as bad as the weather, 27-0, in favor of the Beaverton Beavers.

Bob McNett was hard to stop as shown by the contorted faces of the defending Sunset players.

MILWAUKIE

The Scots lost their second game in a row, this time to Milwaukie, 28-7. The Ponies seem to run unharnessed throughout the whole game, rolling up 289 yards to Douglas' 92 yards. One big factor in Douglas' loss was 10 penalties for a total of 99 yards against the Scots.

CLACKAMAS

The Clackamas Cavaliers came to the Scots home field with one thing in mind, beating Douglas. The final score, 7-6, shows what a close game it was. Clackamas had 9 first downs to Douglas' 7. Clackamas almost won the game when two costly fumbles by the Scots put the Cavaliers within scoring distance.

Fisherman nets Nordlof but Scots hooked Astoria, 19 to 7.

With fierce determination, Dick Jabs bears down on Gresham Gopher.

HILLSBORO

The Scots set a milestone when they met Hillsboro on the Spartan's field. The final score, 7-7, was the first tie in Douglas' history. The Scots seemed to be on the road to victory, leading, 7-0, when in the last quarter they fumbled on the Hillsboro one yard line. The result was that Hillsboro marched 99 yards for its only TD and the point after was successful for a tie game. Bob McNett was the leading ground gainer with 149 yards in 19 carries.

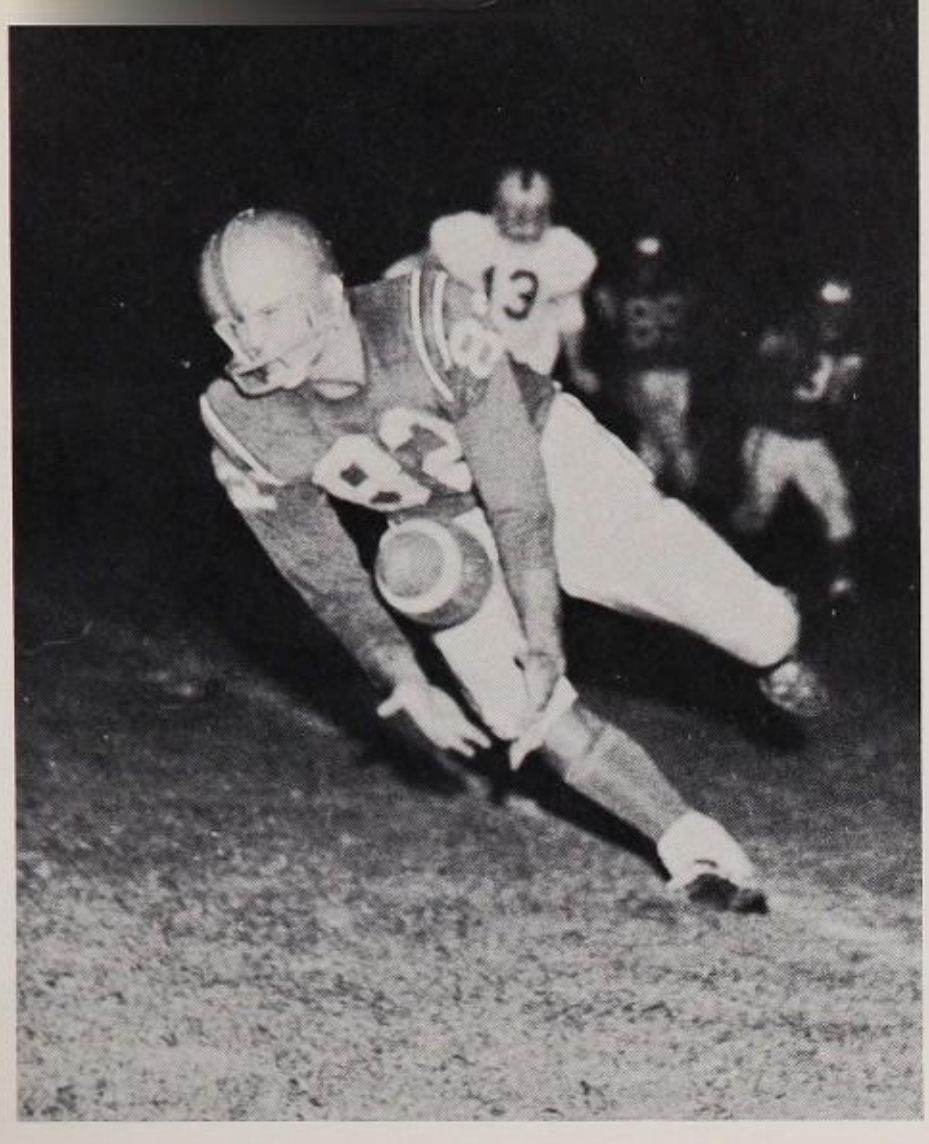
Scots' first TD against Astoria, scored by Barry Nordlof.



Walt Younce tries in vain to catch pass against Milwaukie.

ASTORIA

Douglas picked up its third win of the season with a, 19-7, romp over the Astoria Fishermen. Astoria's only touchdown was made on a 56 yard run. The Scots' three touchdowns were made by Nordlof, Christ, and McNett. Douglas out-gained the Fishermen, 265-161 yards, and had 15 first downs to Astoria's 9.

GRESHAM

The Scots, trailing, 14-6, at halftime, came back in the second half to finally subdue the Gresham Gophers, 18-14. At the end of the game, the Scots were once again in scoring position inside the Gopher's 10 yard line. The Scots dominated the game, rolling up 219 yards to 123 for Gresham. Nordlof, Christ, and Van Hooser scored the Douglas touchdowns.

SUNSET

A determined David Douglas team met Sunset, on the Apollo's field. The Scots came away with a, 25-14, victory over the highly touted Sunset team. This was one of Douglas' best games of the year, if not the best. The Scotsmen played an excellent game on defense as well as on offense. The first TD was scored after Douglas had recovered a Sunset fumble. Barry Nordlof carried the ball over. The Sunset team never recovered and Douglas won its fifth game of the year.

CENTENNIAL

David Douglas scored both of their touchdowns on long marches of 92 and 82 yards, to finally down a scrappy Centennial team in our homecoming game. Barry Nordlof and Rod Hoecker scored the only touchdowns for the Scots. Douglas led in total yards gained, 239-102, and in first downs, 14-6. Although the Scots started the season off slowly, they won five of their last six games and tied the other one, giving the Scots a 6-3-1 record for the season.

The J.V.'s had an outstanding season, taking a first in the Metro League race. After losing the first game of the season to Central Catholic, they went on to win the final seven games, shutting out four of these teams.

The captain of the team this year was Rod Strand. Barry Francis was the winner of the Chuck Sargent Memorial Trophy.

The freshmen team as a whole, proved to be an outstanding group of athletes. They showed the desire necessary for success on the junior varsity and varsity level. The freshmen team opened the season with the bad omen of a 13-13 tie with Milwaukie. The effect of this omen once again appeared at the end of the season with a 7-7 tie with Sunset. Both ties were the result of recalled touchdowns.

VARSITY

With the support of three graduating Seniors, Alan Ludwick, Ken Blanchard, and John Ulappa, the Varsity team took sixth in the Metro League meet at Clackamas. Alan Ludwick, the team captain, led the team in each race and finished with a season record of 7 wins and 3 losses. Dave Olcott, a sophomore, proved to be a top prospect for next year. The final team standing was 10 wins and 8 losses.

J.V.

Great potential and a high team spirit spurred the J.V.'s on to take the Metro League first. The team closed the season with 13 wins and 5 losses. The two top J.V. runners were Pat David and David Rudd. Because of the great turnout of freshmen runners, the J.V. team was one of the strongest in Douglas' history.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Starting slow and finishing strong sums up the Scot's basketball season. After losing 4 out of the first 6 league games, the "Scrappy Scots" went on to win 10 of their last 12 games.

The high point of the season was the Scots' upset win over the league-leading Milwaukie Mustangs. A strong defense and a balanced offensive attack led the Scots to their win, snapping the Mustangs' 12 game winning streak.

The only team which the Scots lost both league games to was the Beaverton Beavers. All other teams fell at least once to the onslaught of Coach Osburn's "hoopsters."

The outstanding player for the Scots this year, was Jerry Olson. Jerry finished the season as fourth highest scorer in the Metro League and was chosen on its first string all-star team. Other all-star selections included Rich Gilpin and Howard Clark who received honorable mention.

Bob Daggett and Rich Krokum discuss the probability for recovering an elusive ball.

VARSITY WRESTLING

The Douglas wrestlers finished a fine season with a record of 8 wins and 0 losses and, as in the previous year, obtained the Metro League title. The Scots also gained possession of the District title and had seven men eligible to go to the State Tournament. Of these seven, Eddie Okamoto, Pete Russo, John Hagan, Dick Jabs, and Bob Hryciw all gained firsts in the District Meet, while Gordon Hashimoto and Larry Pierson obtained seconds. Pete Russo was named the tournament's outstanding wrestler.

In the State Tournament, Douglas grabbed a fourth place. Pete Russo once again obtained a first spot while Ed Okamoto and Gordon Hashimoto took thirds and John Hagan placed fourth.

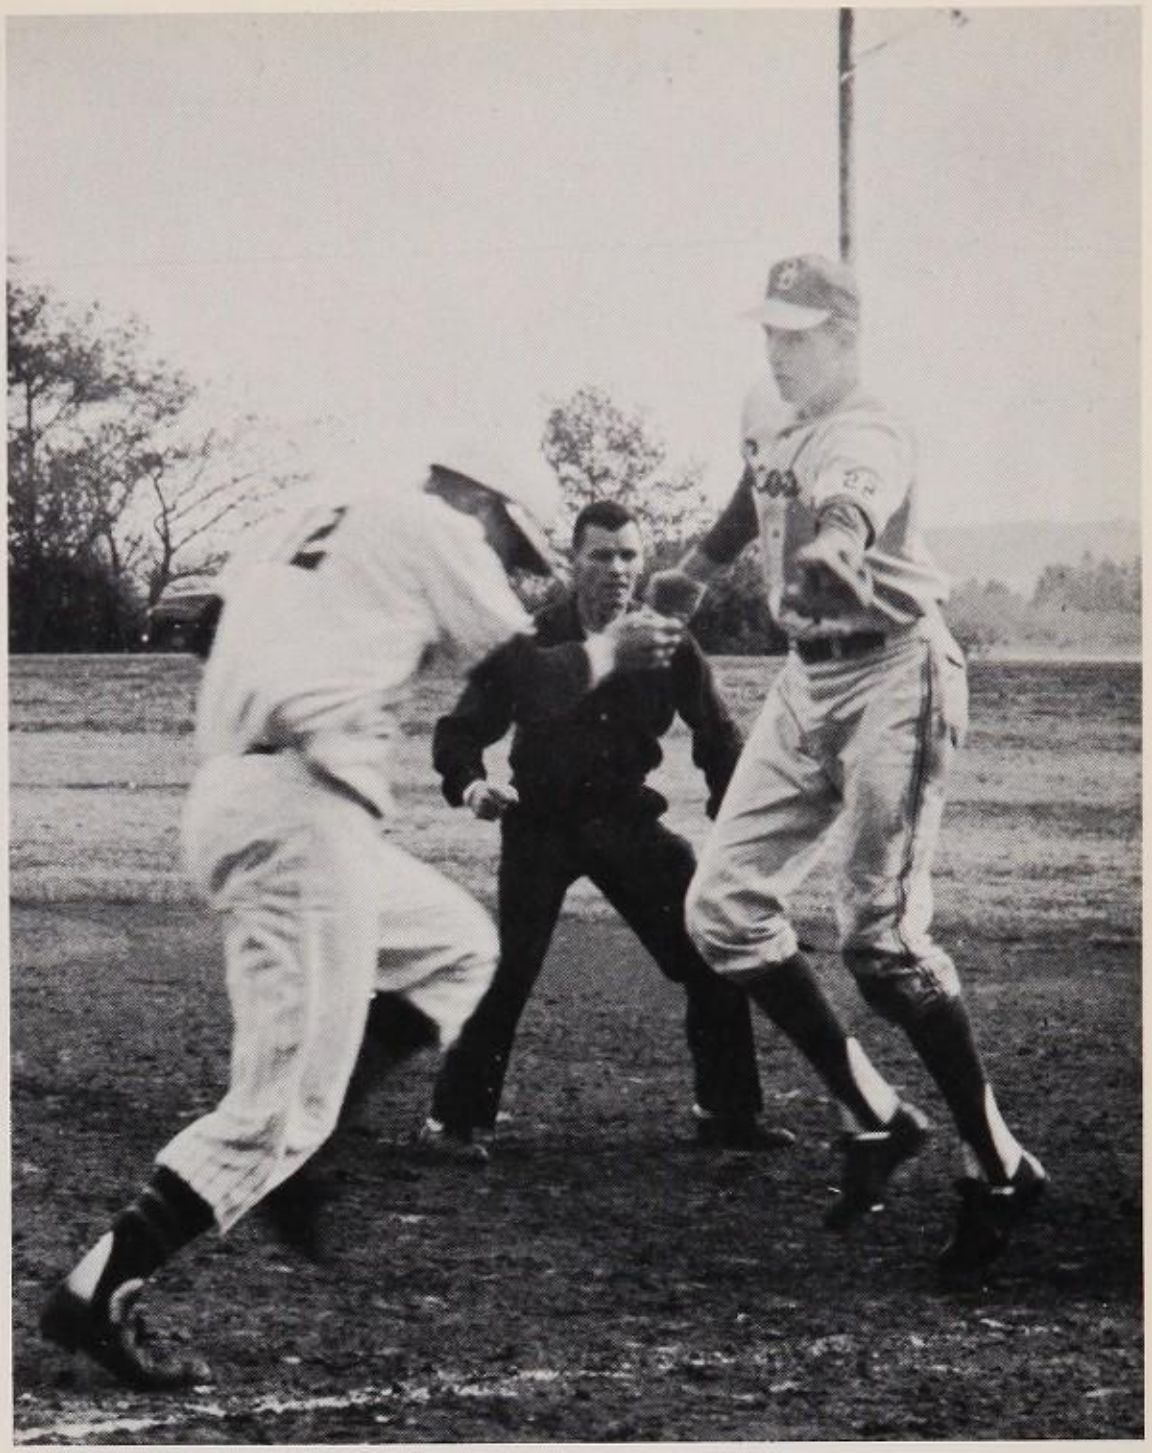
Getting off to a slow, wet start, the Scots finished the season with a 16-9 season record and 9-4 league record, to tie for second in league standings. With 5 out of first 7 games rained out, Coach Wells had a hard time getting his team started. However, the team came on strong and won some very well-played games.

Some of the standouts of the team included: Bob McNett, pitcher, who was named to the first team on the Metro Allstars; Walt Younce, another pitcher; and Jim Wilson, catcher, who batted in cleanup position most of the season.



The umpire seems to be in a good position to call this play as an Astoria player puts head down and keeps going.

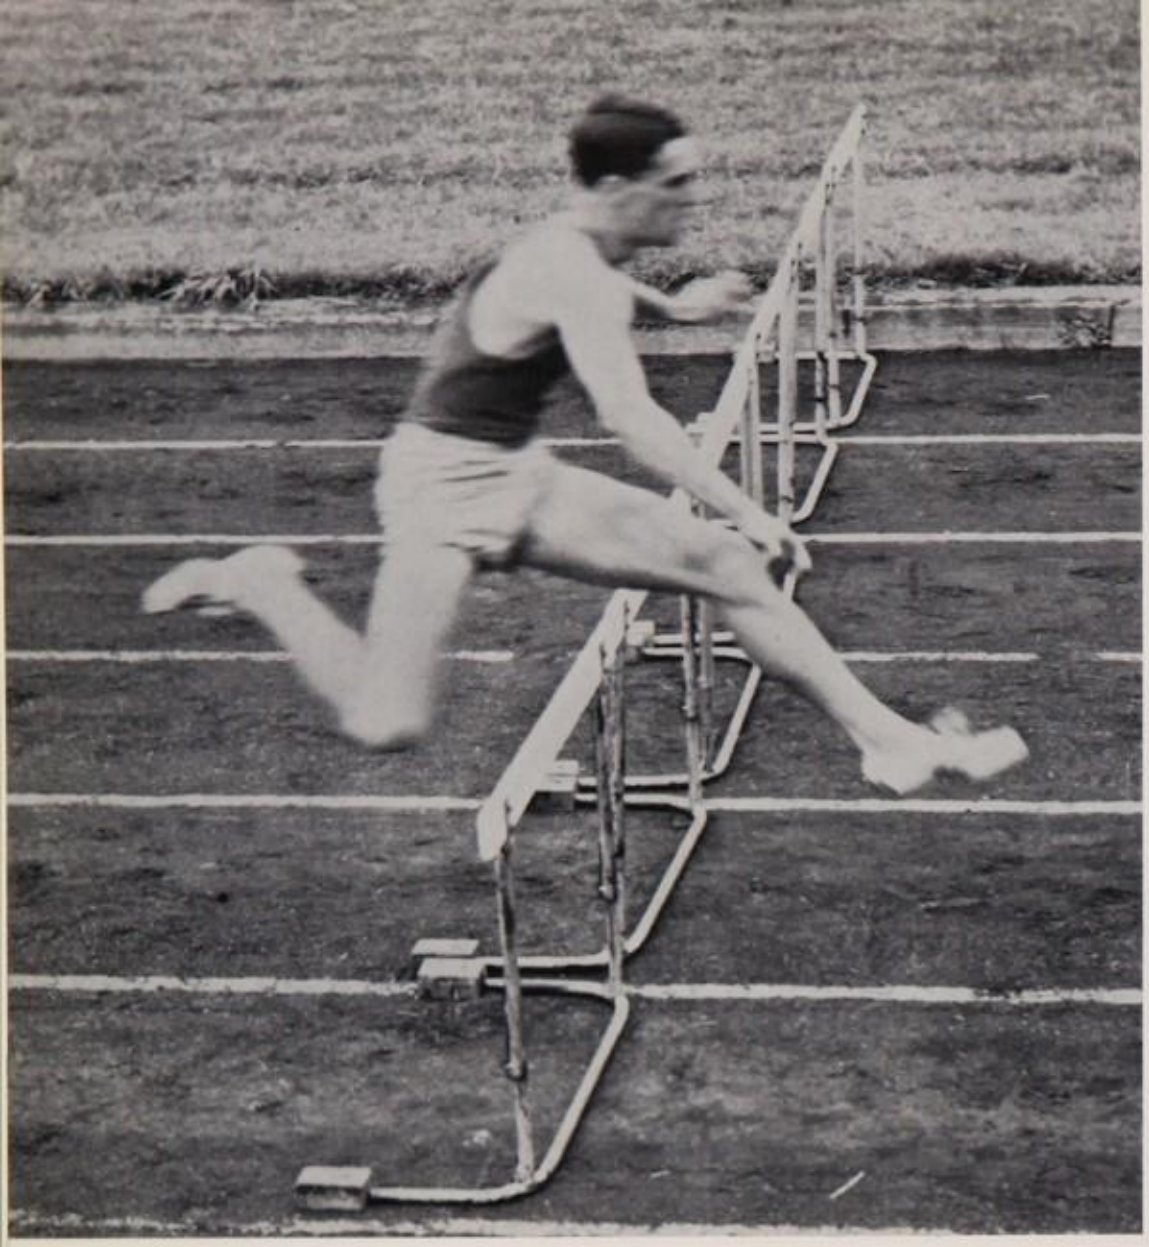
VARSITY TRACK

Co-Captain, Bob Kerr, strains for each inch in jumping 20'7", his best effort of the year.

After a slow start, the Scots finished strong taking the Reynolds Relays and finishing third in the district meet.

Four school records were set this year. The 880 relay team composed of Bob Kerr, Sam Elliott, Walt VanHoozer, and John Ulappa, ran a 1:30.2. Miler Alan Ludwick broke his own record by running a 4:30.4, while Walt VanHoozer ran a 50.7, 440 yard dash. The final standard was set by Sam Elliot in the low hurdles at 20.2.

Underclass standouts this year who will make up the nucleus of next year's team included Jim Rudd, Dave Olcott, Gary Nelson, Steve Shogren, and Kurt Shovlin.



Sam Elliott appears lonesome as the takes first place in the low hurdles with a new record of 20.2.

The Scot's golfers, coached by Mr. Truman Osburn, finished off a fine season with a final record of 8 wins, 5 losses, and 5 ties, which enabled them to place 6th in league play. John Krogh, a freshman, was medalist with a 77 and was joined on the "all league team" by Jerry Iverson with a 78.

With four golfers entered in state play, a total of 678 strokes were secured and thus the Scots finished 20th. The individual scores were as follows:

John Krogh	77 - 76 - 153
Dick Ballew	86 - 83 - 169
Jerry Iverson	89 - 89 - 178
Jeff Iverson	90 - 88 - 178

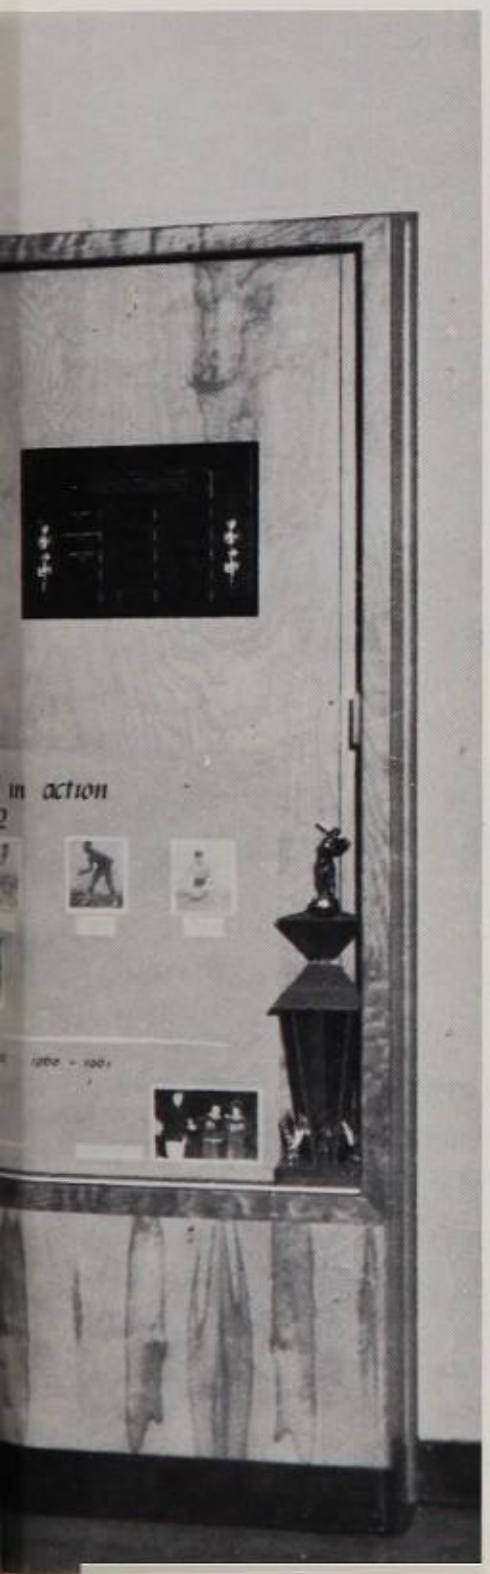
ATHLETICS-A STUDENT BODY EFFORT

The sports trophy case symbolizes many hours of hard work.

Spirit displayed by students adds to a successful sports program.



Coach Majors—one of Douglas' biggest assets.

When Coach Majors announced his resignation in the winter sports award assembly, there was a stunned silence that fell over the student body. He had added much to David Douglas' success, including a state championship wrestling team.

Organizations

A program of organizations provides a useful and healthful outlet for youthful energies which encompasses every student.

Social Service clubs, interest groups, and honorary clubs contribute opportunities for the improvement of leadership qualities, individual skills, and the ability to work with others effectively. This makes the entire program very much a part of preparation for post-graduation plans. . .

CONSTITUTION OF I.
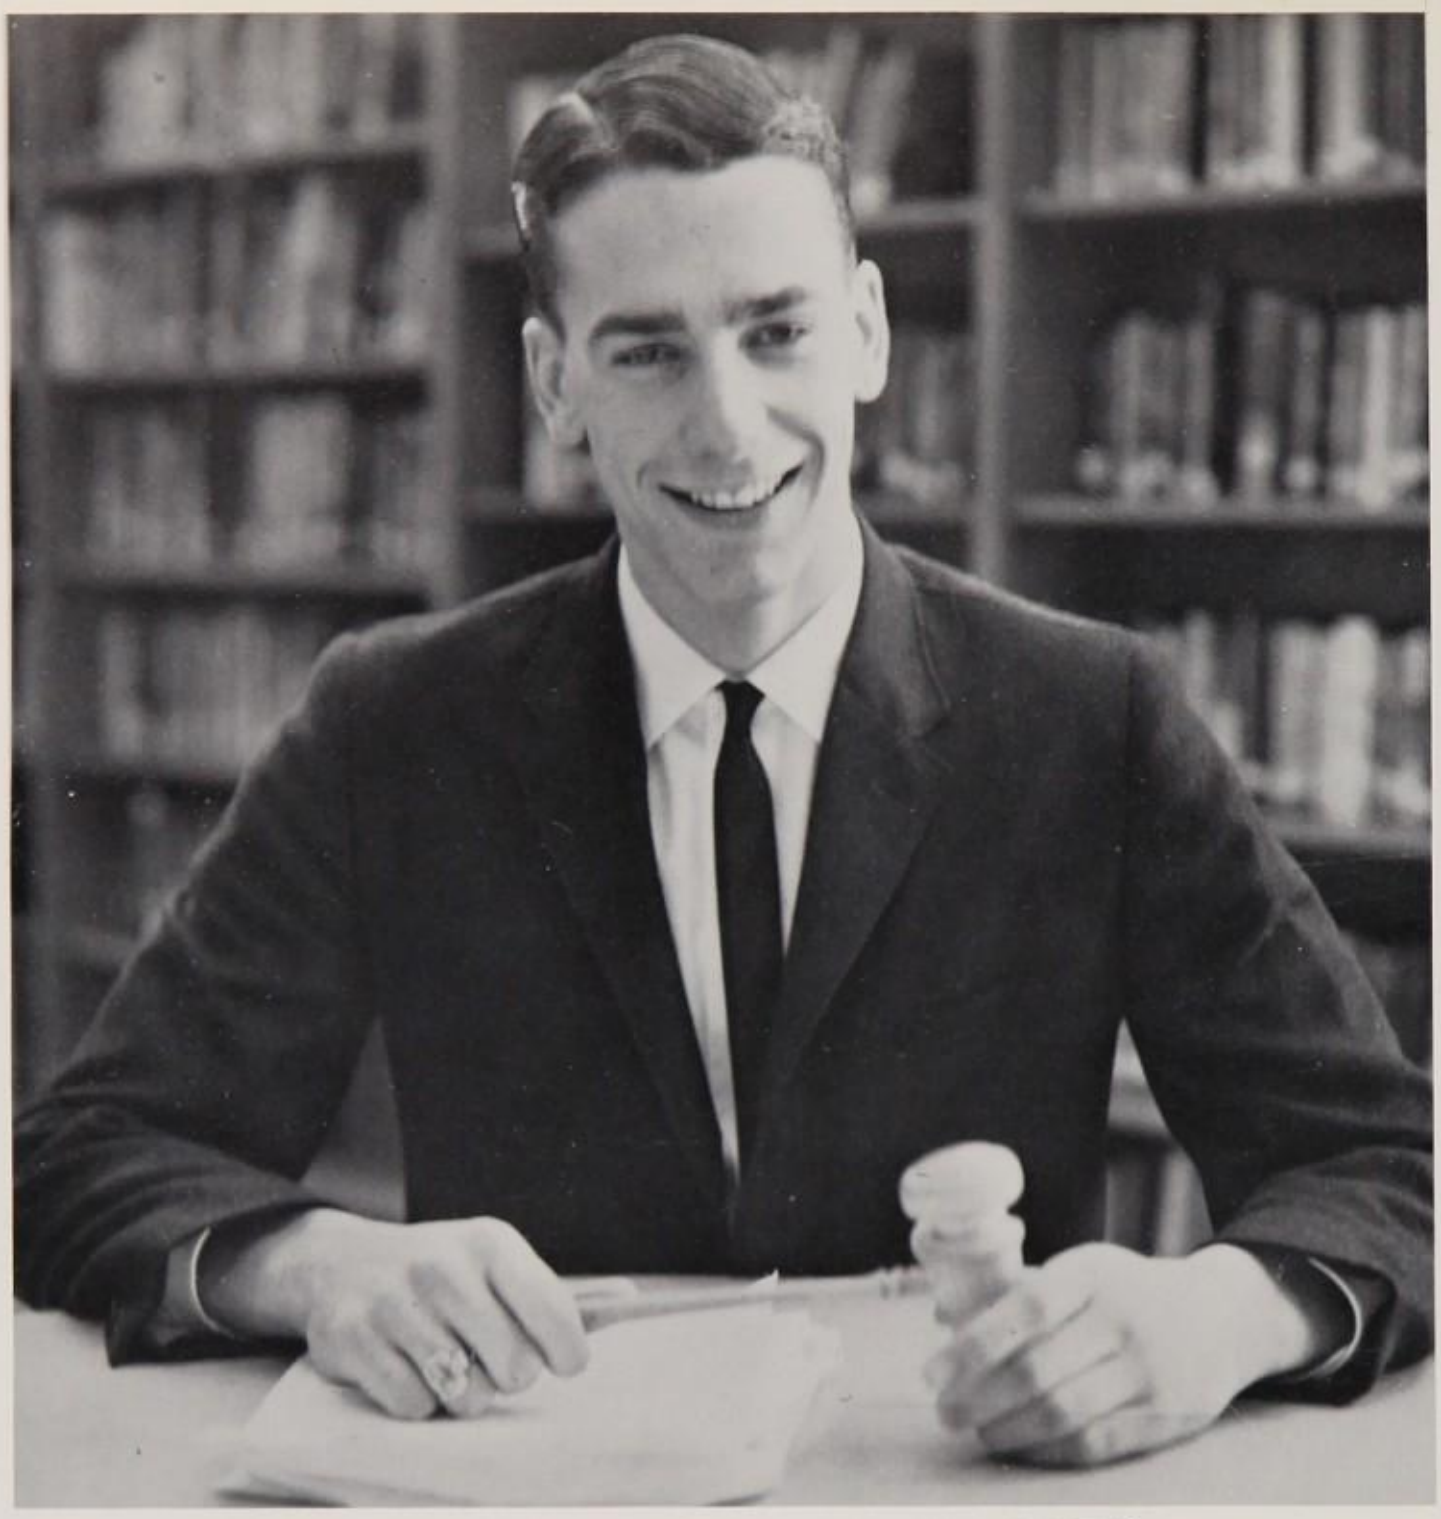
II.



As I think back over the past eighteen years of my life, I can think of no experience which has been so rewarding to me as serving as your Fall Student Body President.

Any person attaining this high office could never hope to represent a finer group of students than those at David Douglas. All success which the school has experienced during the fall term can be contributed to the sole fact that we had such a fine Executive Council and that all of you were so interested in the betterment of our school.

It has truly been a privilege and an unforgettable experience to represent this school as Student Body President. I only hope that I have lived up to your expectations.

My sincere thanks to all of you,

Sam Elliott

Effective leadership is the strongest insurance for the perpetuation and advancement of a great school. We feel that with improved communications throughout the school as our overriding goal, we will be able to instigate programs which will give the student body a stronger feeling of school spirit and general pride in the school.

This improved feeling on the part of the student body, we feel, will manifest itself in the revision of the student body constitution; the maintenance of the physical appearance of the students and the school building, and the attendance at school-sponsored activities.

CELTIC STAFF

"Yes, I know, but those are just words. How do you, the staff, know just what pictures and which words the student body wants used in the CELTIC?

"Our editor-in-chief is on the executive council, and our staff members are all students, representing a cross-section of interests within the student body. That is why we can call the CELTIC 'yours'.

"Yes, but 320 pages, even bigger than last year's book; two buildings to communicate ideas to and from; plus summer delivery of a full-year-coverage book must make the job awfully big.

"You're right, it is a job, but it is rewarding to give a history in pictures of a whole year's activities. As a subject, history might seem boring to some students, but there's no boredom shown for this history book at the summer autograph party and in the fall distribution. Our only hope is that we've acted on behalf of the student body, faculty, and community, in such a way as to truly represent and inspire them.

"We'll see."

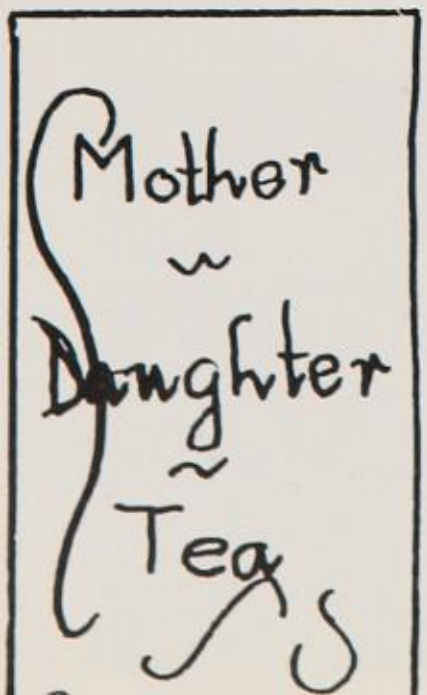
In a very successful effort to keep the girls of David Douglas together with a bond of friendship and a feeling of belonging, the Girls' League provides a number of activities for student participation.

The girls sponsor the eight girls of the month, the Christmas formal, the annual Mother Daughter Tea, and introduced two startling innovations this year, Hush Day and a white shirt section in the basketball bleachers.



GIRLS' LEAGUE CREED

I believe that as a high school girl, I should be Joyous, courageous and courteous,
Truthful, kind and just,
Loyal and sincere in friendship,
Too considerate to speak ill of others,
Willing to forgive and forget,
Prompt and gracious in obedience,
Ready to do all possible service,
Quick to appreciate what is done for me,
Respectful to my elders,
True to the best that is within me,
That I may become a fine and worthy woman.

FRESHMAN GIRLS' LEAGUE

Very active in its youthfulness, the freshman Girls' League sponsored an Easter candy sale and divided the proceeds between the I.R.L. and a freshman class party.

The officers, both fall and spring, programed entertaining skits on etiquette and dating and lunch room conduct for the wondering freshman girls.

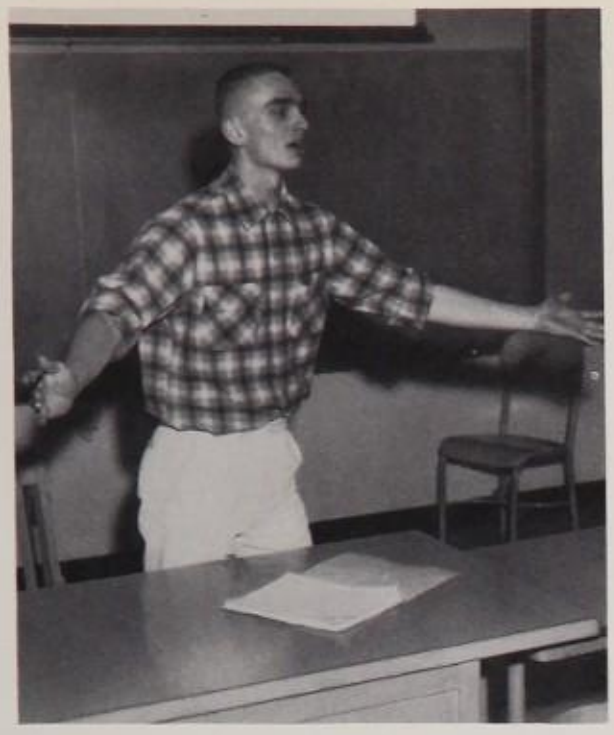
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The David Douglas Chapter of National Honor Society, which began in 1955, now consists of 120 members. Of these 120 members 59 are seniors and 61 are juniors. The purpose of this organization is to promote and inspire in students the qualities of leadership, service, scholarship, and citizenship.



Leaders— those who guide and inspire the words and actions of others.

Service— performing service to my fellowman, my country, and my God.

Scholar— one who seeks for truth and for a deeper understanding of the life that exists today and that has existed for thousands of years.

THESPIANS

Through the efforts of the drama club, Thespians, David Douglas students are well provided with entertainment. The Command Performance, one act festival, Thespian assembly, and exchange assemblies are all a part of this entertainment. Each member of Thespians works enthusiastically in school plays, thus contributing to the success of the club.

GAELIC

"Sincere in all tasks" is the motto of the 35 members of Gaelic social service club. The girls display their sincerity by performing numerous services for the school.

They usher at several plays, including the Spring play "Death Takes a Holiday," this year. They also serve at banquets and dinners, clean the trophy case and hold a Valentine's Day candy sale.

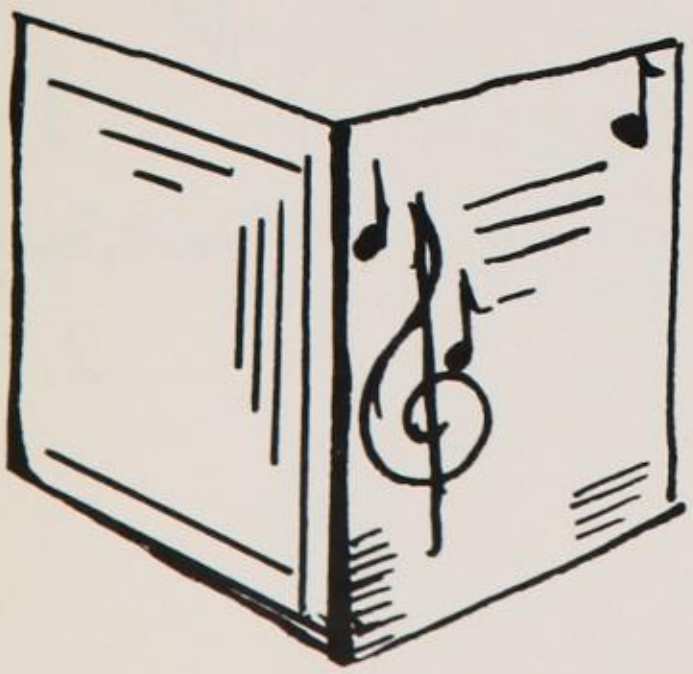
CHOIR



To promote interest in good music of all types and eras both for performing and listening experiences, the 78 members of "A" Choir participate in various school activities. The Christmas Concert, the Easter Sunrise Service, the Spring Concert and several assemblies are all on their agenda. Outside of school the choir takes part in the Metro League Choir Concert and at Christmas, caroling at Lloyd Center and performing for a radio program from the Multnomah Hotel.

FRESHMAN "A" CHOIR

The Freshman "A" choir, as all music groups at the ninth grade level, is mainly a training class for students who want a fundamental background in music. The study of music theory and history, music appreciation, and vocal techniques is of primary importance.

Participation in the winter concert and the reward of high ratings at the district contest added luster to the freshman year of a high school musical career.

ROYAL D

The scarlet "D", symbol of Royal D, is inspiring not only for school spirit in public activities, but also in the field of service. Royal D's serve as doormen at basketball games and wrestling matches. Heading the club of forty lettermen, Craig Boe creates activities to better the school and to improve relationships among varsity lettermen.

The sight of many red clad girls is far from an unfamiliar sight during football and basketball seasons. The Pep club, personifying the school spirit, supports the teams with organized yelling at games and occasional performances at half times. The club holds a successful tootsie pop sale at the beginning of basketball season, and all profits are put into the foreign exchange student fund.

Since the club has changed its policy to open membership, it has expanded to 88 members.

Three important activities of the I.R.L were the American Field Service assembly, fund raising for the foreign exchange students and sponsoring a Korean child.

Since international relations are of express concern to I.R.L., they strive to promote better student understanding.

SCRIPTORI

Inspiring creative and expressive writing, Scriptori sponsors short-story contests. The ten members of Scriptori welcome all persons sincerely interested in improving the quality of their writing for either personal or professional purposes.

The David Douglas chapter of the Future Teachers of America is one of the largest and most active interest clubs at Douglas. Its forty members observe and teach at grade schools in the district, usher at the O. E. A. Convention, and visit Oregon colleges, all with the purpose of learning more about the teaching profession. The annual Apple-for-the-Teacher-Day is a project which both the teachers and future teachers enjoy.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish speaking students obtain a better understanding of the culture and history of the Spanish-speaking people of the world through group discussions and meetings. The group spreads good will by sponsoring a drive at Christmas to collect food and gifts for a needy family in the community.

This year the club was honored to have as a member Inès Varéla, David Douglas' foreign exchange student from Spain.

L. to R.—Row 1: J. Edie, S. Link, J. Young, S. Nichols, A. Mitchel. Row 2: D. Metcalf, D. Hanson, S. Mills, C. Hanel, L. Cate, L. Rogers, P. Russell, J. Carlson, Mrs. Meynink, Advisor. Row 3: T. Lodge, D. Moody, P. Tugman, J. Vahey, M. Guy.

Thalia, a member of the Junior Classical League, promotes further understanding and knowledge of Latin. The 35 members have re-organized this year under new J. C. L. standards and new membership requirements. Main activities of Thalia are the Roman Banquet and the coordination of the May Fete Dance. Car washes are among the money-raising efforts of the club.

L. to R.—Row 1: Mr. Scott, Advisor; R. Mills, T. Starr, C. Niece, J. Gaumer, R. Johannesen, R. Adams, S. Hall, J. Haas, B. Wolsborn, J. Field. Row 2: D. Steelman, P. Morgan, C. Johnson, J. Wigle, S. Blanchard, D. Devnich. Row 6: S. Johannesen.

SKI LORDS

Like to ski? The 40 members of the Ski Lords enjoy this great outdoor sport every weekend during ski season. The club provides bus transportation for grade and high school students plus making arrangements for ski lessons. Changing their name from Hiito Kerho, the club now functions on a full year basis, requiring dues.

OUTDOORSMEN

Prospective hunters, fishermen, and conservationists find much to interest them in the David Douglas Outdoorsmen club. Originally formed in 1960 by Mr. Tom Thayer as a Young Oregonian branch of the Isaac Walton League, the club is now associated with the Lewis and Clark branch of the same league. A major activity of the club is sending a portion of its 40 members to an annual weekend conservation convention.

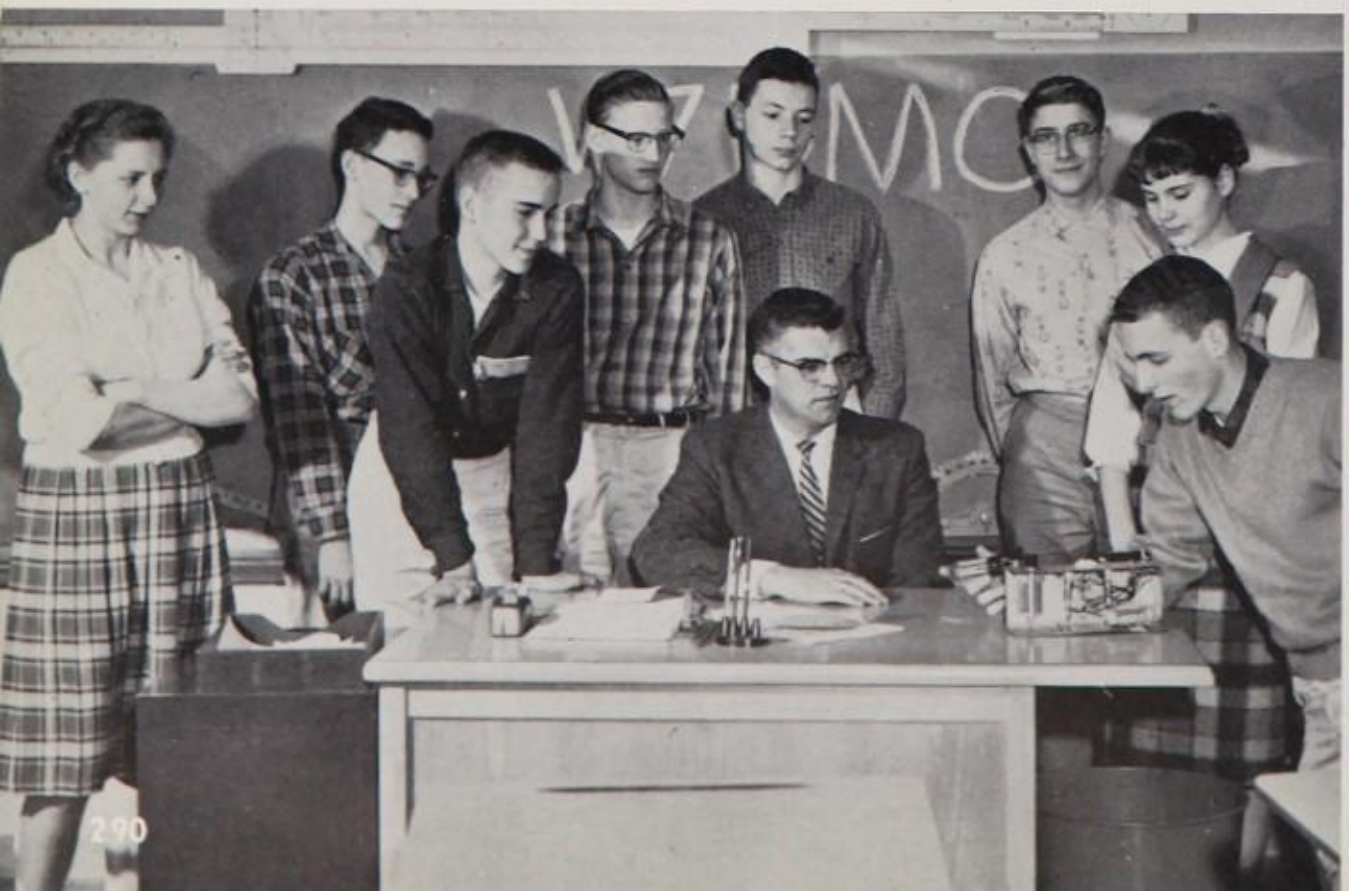
CAMERA CLUB

The camera club, originally called Optica, has been reorganized and its constitution revised. At the present time the club is made up of 17 students interested in photography who strive to promote this interest. The club has sponsored photographic contests and the members work to help both the CELTIC and the HIGHLANDER staffs.

L. to R.—Row 1: D. Devnich, C. Leibham, R. Schmidt, J. Schmeer, B. Allison, R. Erickson, D. Hubka, G. Harmon, L. Faria, P. Kistler, G. St. George, C. Stanek, B. Bandfield.

RADIO CLUB



Does W7DMC sound familiar? To the members of the radio club it is a very familiar sound; it is their call number.

With a membership of 20 the club strives to facilitate the exchange of information by way of amateur radio and general co-operation among members. Included in their services for the school and community are operating a concession stand at football games and selling popcorn at basketball games.

L. to R.—Row 1: D. Metcalf, T. Hendricksen, D. Garlick, J. Slama, B. Bauman, B. Carlson, C. Hanel, K. Swaggart. Seated: Mr. R. Whitaker, Advisor.

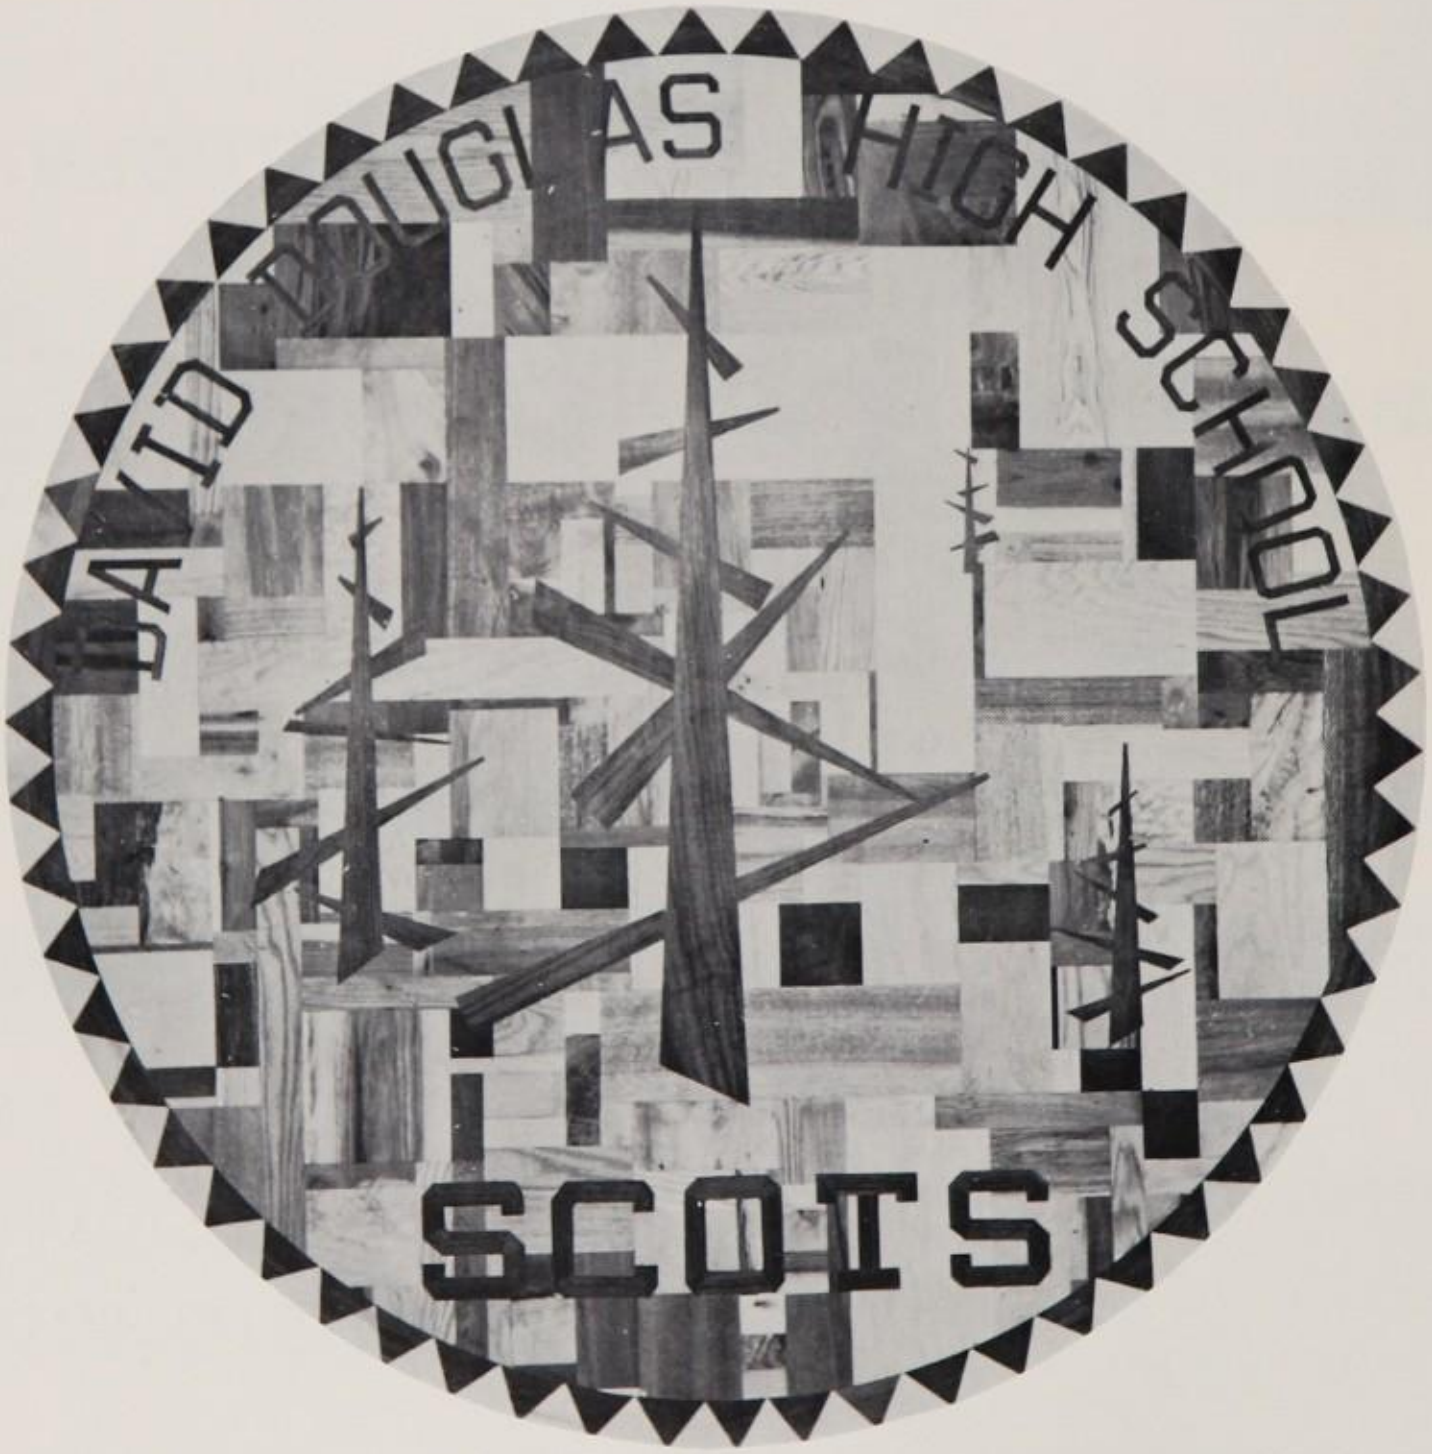
Special Senior

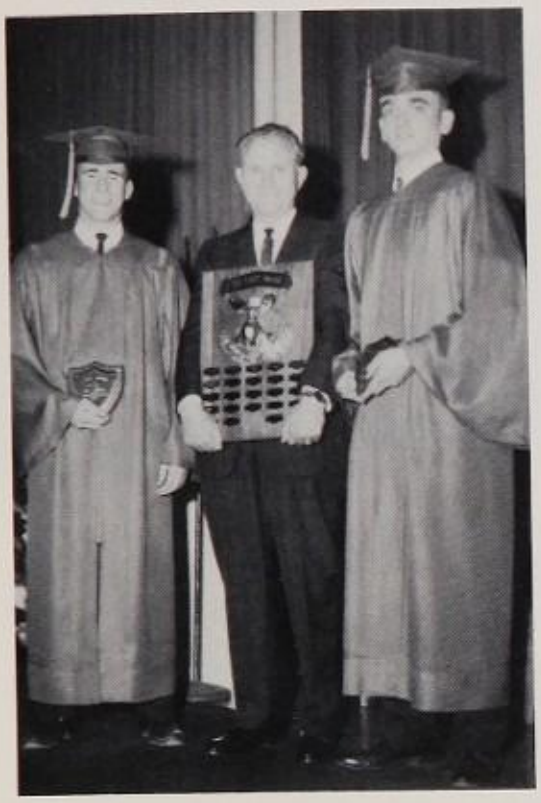
A year of accomplishment, a year to remember, a year wherein existed the start of memories never-fading.

The Official SEAL of David Douglas High School

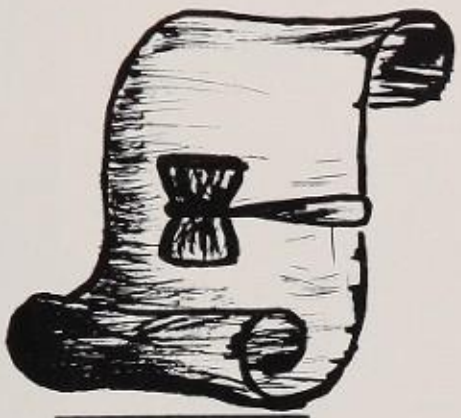


A GIFT OF THE CLASS OF 1962

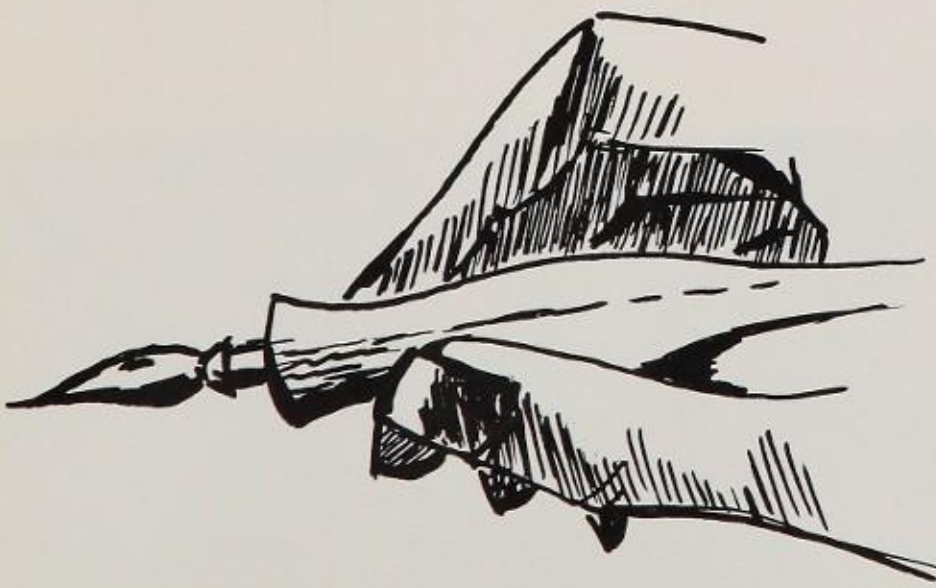
MAJOR AWARD RECIPIENTS



The Light Award was donated by Mr. Floyd Light to give recognition to the most outstanding senior in the area of leadership and scholastic achievement. This year the award was given jointly to Mac Heald and Mike Robinson.



Lydia Weigel, the beloved first librarian of David Douglas, has left many things to remind students of her love of books and all other cultured arts. Among the remembrances is the Lydia Weigel Award which is given annually to an outstanding senior girl who has shown more than the usual amount of interest in objects of beauty. Virginia Correia was the recipient of the award this year.



Citizenship is the key attribute which is needed to obtain the Fenn Award, given to Douglas by Mr. Fenn in the memory of his wife Alice who donated much of her time to the betterment of students in this community. This year Bill Wenstrand received the Fenn Award.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

A scholarship is given in recognition of outstanding achievement in some field of academic life. This can be either in the scholastic field or in another field such as art or music. Scholastic achievement is not the only pre-requisite for receiving a scholarship. Financial need is perhaps the most important basis on which scholarships are awarded.

During the school year 1961-1962, David Douglas saw the advent of many new fads. Among these were the "yo-yo's", the "liz" blouses, and plaid pants. Remember when the girls started wearing crew-socks and knee-socks? How about the dances that were new this year: The "twist", the "watusi", the "slop", and others?

Some of these fads will linger on; however, many will be forgotten. The purpose of the art work on these pages is to help us remember some of the fads which we may have experienced or which may have been merely laughed at.

The art work was done by Ben Warnstrom, a student in the art department.

Scot Enrollment Figures Exceed Maximum; More Expected by Next Spring

This year Douglas enrollment figures totaled 1,665 at last count. This figure is 165 over the maximum of 1,500 students for which the school was built.

Separated into class numbers, there are 461 freshmen, 479 sophomores, 416 juniors and 309 seniors.

The administration stated that by the end of the 1958-59 school year, 1,800 students are expected to be attending Douglas. This is 300 more than the school is constructed to hold.

When asked the question, "What would you do if you were given a million dollars, tax free?" Here is what several of the Douglas students said:

Dick Taylor quickly replied that he would buy himself a big gym to work out in. Bob Moeller said he'd buy a '60 Ford Fairlane 500 and fully equipped "with blondes". Dick Lincke would get the school a new track. (Guess he don't like this one.)

Arland Christ said he'd have a big blast and travel. While Paul Butenschoen would buy a real neat house for his folks

'Scheharazade' Theme of Prom

A royal night of dancing under the exotic spell of Arabia, charmed the Douglas Scots at this years annual Junior, Senior Prom.

White veils draped the entrances and walls with tops to Arabian style "teepee" decorating the ceiling. Adding an extra touch of sparkle, glittering globes were suspended over the dancers.

The servers and coat-check girls kept up with the theme by dressing in harem girl costumes. Colorful lights reflected a glow from the traditional ice punch-bowl.

As a souvenir for this "night to remember" the Camera Club took pictures of the couples for those desiring them.

Adding to the appearance of the dance floor, was a canopied interior of a luxurious Arabian tent keeping to the theme of "Scheharazade."

The Prom, annually sponsored by the Juniors in honor of the Seniors, came to a royal end with an appropiate song. Beverly Reese sang "The Party's Over" and the couples departed for respective destinations.

ALMA MATER

Your spirit David Douglas
We cherish more than fame
This tribute from within your walls
Brings honor to your name

And may you stand in triumph
And may each friend prove true
To sunny days
To all the ways
That we remember you.
